UNABLE TO SEE FROM ECZEMA

I suffered with Eczema of the worst kind, my face and neck down to my shoulders was one inflammation, was not able to see out of my eyes for quite a while, and was unable to sleep for weeks, on account of the intense pain, which nearly drove me insane. My face and neck were swollen and made me look hideous. Had three doctors at different times, and not one of them could relieve me of my pain, swelling, and blotches. I used three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, four boxes CUTICURA (ointment), three cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and my friends and one of the doctors are surprised, and asked, "Who cured you?" and I tell them quickly, "CUTICURA REMEDIES." THE TROOPS LANDED.

General Shafter's Army of Invasion Now on Cuban Soil.

NOT A LIFE LOST IN MAKING THE SHORE.

NEW YORK, June 23.—A special dated at Playa Del Este, Cuba, today, says that at 1 o'clock this morning the last of General Shafter's army of invasion had landed at Baiquiri.

THE LANDING OF THE ARMY OF INVASION.

(Copyright 1898, by the Associated Press.)

ON BOARD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH BOAT WANDA, Baiquiri Harbor, Cuba, Wednesday, June 22, 5 p. m.—Via Kingston, Jamaica, Thursday, June 23.—5:40 a. m.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon, 6,000 trained American soldiers are encamped in the hills in and around Baiquiri, and 10,000 more rest on their arms on board transports off shore, ready to join those who have debarked as soon as the available launches and small boats can carry them ashore.

Time and sea and weather were propitious for the army of invasion. The army and the navy co-operated splendidly, and as the big war ships closed in on the shore to pave the way for the approach of the transports and then went back again, three cheers for the navy went up from 10,000 throats on the troop ships and three cheers for the army rose from ship after ship as the troop ships moved in to take their share in the hazardous game.

THE CUBANS BORE THEIR SHARE.

It was war, and it was magnificent. The Cuban insurgents, too, bore their share in the enterprise honorably and well. Five thousand of them, in mountain fastnesses and dark thickets of ravines, lay all last night on their guns watching every road and mountain path leading from Santiago de Cuba to Guantanamo. A thousand of them were within sight of Baiquiri, making the approach of the Spaniards under cover of the darkness an impossibility.

At 4 o'clock this morning, as the Associated Press dispatch boat approached Baiquiri, the entire island of Cuba seemed wrapped in soft mist like that of the dog days in northern latitude. Dull, leaden clouds lay on the eastern horizon, and the color was reflected in the gray waters of the ocean, which gently undulated in the lazy breeze.

Distant objects loomed dimly, but it was seen that many of the troop ships that had been lying several miles in the offing had drawn in toward shore, while three or four warships lay menacingly near the harbor approach. All around the transports, steam launches and small boats were bobbing about like corks, the first indication of the true object of the undertaking ahead.

AN INSPIRING SCENE.

An hour later the sun was rising in the eastern sky, touching the mountain tops with patches of light green and revealing the great semicircle of troopships, some close to the coast line, others a mile distant, with their decks crowded with eager, expectant men, impatient to begin the great movement of destiny, to make a new chapter in the history of America, the first invasion by our army of a foreign country in half a century.

As the dispatch boat of the Associated Press ran closer in, near where the New Orleans was lying with her great Armstrong guns trained on Baiquiri, tongues of lurid flame and black smoke were seen rising from the town, the inevitable consequence of war and a sure sign that the Spaniards had gone, leaving ruin behind them.

The captain of the New Orleans shouted the news to the dispatch boat, adding:

"You had better keep off a little. You are in range. They have a rifle on the hill on the eastern side of Baiquiri."

There is a steep, rocky hill, known as Punta Baiquiri, rising almost perpendicularly at the place indicated. It is a regular Gibraltar in possibilities of defense. From the staff at its summit the Spanish flag was defiantly floating at sunset last night, but it was gone this morning and with it the small Spanish guard which had maintained the signal station.

SPANIARDS FIRED THE TOWN.

Between nightfall and dawn, the Spaniards had taken the alarm and fled from the place, firing the town as they left. The flames were watched with interest from the ships. Two sharp explosions were heard.

At first they were thought to be the report of guns from Spanish masked batteries, but they proved to be the explosion of ammunition in the burning building. Three hours waiting made the men on the transports impatient to get ashore and in action, and every move of the warships was closely watched by the soldiers.

A little before 9 o'clock the bombardment of the batteries of Jaragua was begun by the ships of Rear Admiral Sampon's fleet. This was evidently a feint to cover the real point of attack, Jaragua being about half way between Baiquiri and Santiago de Cuba.

The bombardment lasted about twenty minutes. The scene then quickly shifted back again to the great semi-circle of the transport fleet before Baiquiri.

At 9:40 o'clock the New Orleans opened fire with a gun that sent a shell rumbling and crashing against the hillside. The Detroit, Wasp, Machias and Suwanee followed suit and soon the hillsides and the valleys seemed to be ablaze as shot followed shot in swift succession amid the wild and excited cheering of the soldiers on the transports.

In five minutes the sea was alive with flotillas of small boats, headed by launches, speeding for Baiquiri dock. Some of the boats were manned by crews of sailors, while others were rowed by the soldiers themselves.

Each boat contained sixteen men, everyone in fighting trim and carrying three days' rations, a shelter tent, a gun and 200 cartridges ready to take the field on touching the shore should they be called upon to do so.

FIRE NOT RETURNED.

The firing of the warships proved to be a needless precaution, as their shots were not returned and no Spaniards were visible.

Two correspondents of the Associated Press, in a small boat, joined the first flotilla that went ashore and witnessed the inspiring sight of the landing.

General Shafter, on board the Seguranca, closely watched the landing of the troops. Bragadier General Lawton, who had been detailed to command the landing party, led the way in a launch, accompanied by his staff, and directed the formation of the line of operation.

A detachment of eighty regular infantry soldiers was the first to land, followed by General Shafter's old regiment, the First infantry. Then came the Twenty-fifth infantry, the Twenty-second infantry, the Tenth infantry, the Seventh and Twelfth infantry, the Second Massachusetts regiment and a detachment of the Ninth calvary.

RIVALRY TO BE FIRST TO LAND.

The boats rushed forward simultaneously from every quarter in good natured rivalry to be the first, and their occupants scrambled over one another to leap ashore

As the boats tossed about in the surf breaking against the pier, getting ashore was no easy matter, and the soldiers had to throw their rifles on the dock before they could climb up themselves and some bad tumbles resulted, but nobody was hurt.

At the end of the pier the companies and regiments quickly lined up and were marched away.

General Lawton threw a strong detachment, for the night, about six miles west, on the road to Santiago, and another detachment was posted to the north of the town, among the hills. The regular troops were quartered in the town, some of them being housed in the buildings of the iron company.

Others of the troops were quartered in deserted houses, while others still preferred the shelter of their tents in the adjoining fields.

The morning's fire, it was seen, destroyed the round house, the repair shops and several small dwellings.

THE TOWN DESERTED.

The town was deserted when the troops landed, but women and

MANILA IS TOPPLING

Only Inner City Now Held by the Spaniards.

Aguinaldo Has Made a Compact With Dewey.

Pledges That No Massacre Shall Take Place.

The Insurgent Leader is Waiting the Arrival of American Troops Before Taking the City.

LONDON, June 23.—The Manila railroad company, having offices in this city, has received a cable message saying that though the Philippine insurgents have captured all but the inner city of Manila, they are respecting property and are refraining from looting.

A London agent of the insurgents claims to have information that General Aguinaldo has made a compact with Rear Admiral Dewey not to attack the walled city until the American troops arrive, when the Americans and the insurgents will co-operate.

REST IN PEACE.

Remains of Father Brammer Consigned to the Grave.

Thousands of People Pay Loving Tribute to the Departed Prelate--Very Rev. M. E. Campion Preached the Sermon.

Mid tears and flowers and surrounded by thousands of sorrowing friends and parishioners, the remains of the late beloved Father Brammer were today consigned to their last resting place, underneath the sanctuary in which he had so devotedly served the Lord for more than thirty years.

The Cathedral was filled to overflowing with Fort Wayne people, Catholics and Protestants, who came to pay their last respects to a devoted Christian and a progressive citizen.

The Cathedral was heavily draped in mourning, interspersed here and there with festoons of evergreens. The drapery was not confined to the auditorium, but the outside of the edifice was strung with bolts of mourning. The casket in which lay the dead prelate was set at the front of the center aisle at the foot of the altar, the head slightly raised, so that in every part of the Cathedral the familiar countenance could be easily seen. The countenance presented the appearance of peaceful sleep and rest.

The funeral services were held at 9 o'clock. First came the office of the dead, followed by solemn pontifical high mass, with the following officers:

Celebrant—The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Rademacher.

Assistant—Rev. Henry Boeckelman, Elkhart.

Deacons of Honor—The Rev. P. F. Roche, Lafayette; the Rev. M. J. Bryne, of Whiting.

Deacon of the Mass—The Rev. J. F. Delaney, Fort Wayne; the Rev. John R. Quinlan, of Huntington, sub-deacon.

Master of Ceremonies—The Rev. C. B. Guendling, the Rev. J. Dondurand, the Rev. W. J Quinlan, of Marion, and the Rev. J. F. Durham.

The sermon was preached by the Very Rev. M. E. Campion, of Logansport, a dear and close friend of the deceased vicar general. He paid a loving tribute to the nobility of character, the Christian fortitude and the universal kindness of the devoted priest. During his discourse hundreds of people shed tears of regret as they realized that too true were the words spoken of him who was about to be consigned to the grave.

After the sermon the remains were carried to the north side of the church, and through the entrance to the vault. There, under the altar at which he so often offered up prayers for others, the body of Father Brammer was laid to rest beside his predecessor, Monsignor Benoit and Bishops Leurs and Dwenger.

The attendance of priests at the funeral was very large, almost every reverend of the diocese being present, notwithstanding that communion services were being held in many places. It is believed at least 100 priests were in attendance at the obsequies.

DELEGATES RETURN.

Successful State Meeting of the Modern Woodmen--May Meet Here Next Summer.

M. S. Willson, H. A. Ulenhake, Frank Howenstien and George B. Freeby returned this morning from Lafayette, where they had been in attendance upon the state convention of Modern Woodmen. The gentlemen report having had a most enjoyable time and a very successful convention. Mr. Freeby was elected a member of the board of directors. The delegates from Fort Wayne boomed Fort Wayne for the next state convention and believe that at the log rolling, which is held in Rushville next September, it will be decided to come here next year.

Cervera's Guns are Being Mounted on Shore at Santiago.

MILITARY SITUATION IN EASTERN CUBA.

(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)

IN GENERAL GARCIA'S CAMP, Aurren Deras, Santiago de Cuba, June 22, per the Associated Press Dispatch Boat Wanda, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 27.—7. a. m.—A Cuban who left the city of Santiago on Monday night arrived at General Garcia's camp on Tuesday morning with accurate maps of the harbor and of the earthworks surrounding it. The ships of Admiral Cervera have moved from the positions they wore in three days ago, and now lie in almost a circle, surrounding a small island and lighthouse about half way up the four-mile harbor.

The armored cruiser Cristobal Colon, which is uninjured, lies to the west, commanding with her port battery the narrow neck of the harbor, while the Vizcaya, also uninjured, lies to the east, her starboard battery looking down on the same neck.

Both of the Spanish torpedo boat destroyers are temporarily disabled, one having been struck by fragments of the shells that sunk the Reina Mercedes and the other having her boiler tubes and engines in course of repairs.

The most important statement made was in substance that the torpedo boats have not since their arrival here made any attempt to leave, being unable to do so. The ships have only half their supplies of coal, although some coal arrived by overland route two week ago.

The shell that sunk the Reina Mercedes was fired by the Massachusetts.

Beyond this loss and the quite large loss of life incident to it, there was little or no damage done. The earthworks were disturbed and one smooth bore gun was dismounted on the west battery.

Seven new guns are being put up facing the sea, three of which, on the west are ships guns of the six inch rapid-fire variety and automatic guns of all descriptions, it appears, are being dismounted from the ships and mounted on the earthworks surrounding the city.

A new line of trenches has been dug about a mile and a half from the city. The Spanish soldiers known as the regular troops are on half rations and no rations or supplies are furnished to the local Spanish forces, numbering about 3,000.

They are compelled to forage for themselves.

The spirit of discontent, it also seems, is very widespread among the Spanish troops and an uprising in Santiago de Cuba is feared.

There is an absolute lack of drugs in Santiago and, finally, the crews of the Spanish warships are on half rations.

MILITARY SITUATION IN EASTERN CUBA.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The military situation at Santiago de Cuba, so far as the war and navy departments know, remains precisely as it was at sundown yesterday. Troops are being landed from General Shafter's corps, and this landing has not yet been completed.

Neither Shafter nor Sampson have reported since the two cablegrams received last night. It is gathered from these, taken in connection with the press reports, that only one landing in a military sense has been made, but naturally with so large a number of transports to be discharged, the troops have been scattered up and down the beach for several miles.

The cable station is within seven miles of the point where the debarkation is going on. The officials here say that this work cannot be completed for several days, although of course the troops without their supplies may be all ashore before that time.

One fact appears, namely: that General Shafter is arranging himself the details of landing, advised by Sampson and perhaps Garcia, and that the military authorities have allowed him to exercise his discretion in this, for they do not know whether he will make more than one landing or just here that landing is.

One beneficial effect from the landing at Baiquiri will be to distract the attention of the Spanish from the harbor of Guantanamo. The mines having been probably all removed, and the forts that commanded the lower harbor having been silenced, with the disappearance of the Spaniards from the country surrounding the bay the navy will be in full possession of what it has long wished for—an absolutely safe and land-locked harbor in which all of Sampson's fleet and the transports as well can find refuge from any West Indian cyclones.

Gen. Greely received a dispatch today from Lieutenant Colonel Allen, of the signal service, in charge of the cable station established at Playa de Este, Cuba. It did not relate to military operations, but from the fact that no reference was made to important developments, it was inferred that the situation has not changed materially since last night when the landing of troops was in progress. Colonel Allen will make Playa de Este the cable base, but in addition to this a military cable line will be stretched from that point westward along the coast to the headquarters of General Shafter.

By this shore loop General Shafter will be brought into direct cable communication with the war department.

Colonel Allen is now hurrying forward preparations in this direction. He had all the material necessary for the shore loop, with instruments and operators ready to work the line as soon as the army had quarters fixed.

It is not quite clear thus far at what point General Shafter and his main body of troops have established their base. The official dispatches to the secretary of war and secretary of the navy spoke of landing at Baiquiri, and a demonstration at Cabanas.

Other official messages stated that the landing was going on simultaneously at two points, making an assault on Santiago in the front and rear. The press dispatches also speak of Juraga as a probable point of landing. At whatever one of these points General Shafter takes up his base the military telegraph lines will connect them with Playa del Este and thence to the war department. Being strictly a military line, the cable from headquarters to Playa del Este will not be open for commercial business, although the authorities will be disposed to give the press such facilities as are possible under the circumstances.

Most of the unofficial messages, however, will have to be handled from Playa del Este in order to avoid glutting the military loop.

Army officers were intently scanning the map of the country around Santiago today with a view of locating the troops and fixing their formation on the ove of the advance. Baiquiri is about fifteen miles due east from the month of Santiago harbor. A small river runs inland at that point, affording additional facilities for landing. The map shows a road direct from Baiquiri to the entrance of Santiago harbor, and thence along the harbor to the city of Santiago.

Besides this road, a railroad starts a few miles west of Baiquiri, circling along the coast up to the mouth of Santiago harbor.

Juragia, the other point mentioned in the dispatches, is midway between Baiquiri and Santiago harbor. It also has a small stream, giving additional facilities for landing, and the railroad appears to take its start along the coast from that point. Back of this railroad and highway the interior shows mountainous formations which would make the progress of an army difficult.

It seems evident from an examination of the military map that General Shafter's troops at Baiquiri or Juragua will move westward along the highway, perhaps utilizing the railroad and thus approaching Santiago from the southeast. Distinct from this landing, which is east of Santiago harbor, it seems evident that at least a part of General Shafter's forces will land west of the harbor, thus allowing an attack on Santiago from the northwest.

Miss Bessie Jefferson, formerly of the law offices of Lowry, Spencer & Lowry and George F. Felts, has accepted a position with the Fort Wayne Electric corporation. She leaves the situation she has long held with high recommendations from her past employers. Miss Jefferson's duties in her new position began this afternoon.

Captain W. F. Ranke and Henry Niemeyer left at 12:45 today for Chickamauga, the captain having finished his labors and closed up the recruiting quarters last evening. Mr. Niemeyer has enlisted in the battery and will be mustered in with the members of the two squads which went down last week.

The young people of the city are invited to meet at the Y. W. C. A. on Berry street to organize a loyal temperance meeting June 25, at 2 p. m. Mrs. C. S. Ridenour, superintendent, assisted by Miss Anna Philley and Miss Jessie Drake, will conduct the meeting.

FIFTY THOUSAND MEN

Recruits Arriving Daily by Hundreds.

Soldiers are Uniformed and Being Armed.

General Brooke's Army Will be the Best Equipped Yet to Take the Field Against Spain.

CHATTANOOGA, National Military Park, Tenn., June 23.—No orders of any kind affecting the present status of General Brook's army have been received and the work of preparing the men for the field is going forward rapidly and satisfactory. There are now at the park nearly 47,000 men and these are being added to daily from 500 to 700 recruits. Yesterday and last night the largest number yet to arrive in one day came in, there being about 1,500 arrivals in the city.

Including the payment to the Twelfth New York this week, it is estimated that $310,000 has been paid to volunteers at Chickamauga since the army was mobilized here.

The regular government pay day for many of the regiments is approaching, and some of the regiments have been mustered in for more than thirty days and have not yet been paid. Work on the pay rolls will begin in a few days.

Everything is now moving smoothly at the park. The men are all contented, and are working with a good will. The quartermaster's department has been thoroughly systematized, so that there is no longer the slightest difficulty for the men to get plenty of good, wholesome food. The regiments are now equipped with new uniforms and are being armed as rapidly as the guns can be turned out of the arsenal.

Other needed small equipments are being added daily, and it is now believed that this army would be the best equipped of any to go into the field.

RUSSIA FRIENDLY.

New Ambassador Brings Good Will of the Czar.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 23.—Russia's first ambassador to the United States, Count De Cassini, was formally presented to the president at 11 o'clock today by the secretary of state.

The ambassador, who was accompanied by his secretary and other attaches, was received in the blue parlor of the executive mansion, where he delivered to the president his letter accrediting him to this government.

All were in complete court costume. In the course of a brief address, the ambassador spoke of the friendly relations that had always existed between the Russian empire and the United States and expressed the hope that these cordial relations would continue for many years to come.

The ambassador laid special emphasis upon this part of his address. Altogether the speech was exceedingly friendly and cordial in tone, and did not contain a sentence not in entire accord with a feeling of perfect good will and friendship.

The president's reply was in the same amicable vein.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. Amassa Kocher and little daughter, Leota, have gone to the country to visit a week with friends.

A BIG BATTLE IS ON.

MILES HINTS THAT A BATTLE IS WAGING.

MADRID, June 23.—4 p. m.—News of serious fighting near Santiago de Cuba has been received here. Admiral Cervera cables that the situation is critical and the governor of Santiago admits that the Spaniards have been obliged to retire, but a Spanish victory is claimed.

SPANISH CLAIM TO HAVE REPULSED ATTACK.

MADRID, June 23.—4 p. m.—The minister for war, General Correa, it is announced, has received an official dispatch from Santiago de Cuba, announcing that "the Americans' first attack on Puenta Berraco has been repulsed after a hard fought and bloody engagement."

Puenta Berraco is situated a short distance from Baiquiri, where the United States troops landed yesterday. It is nearer the coast and therefore more completely under the guns of the American fleet from which it can be judged that it is highly improbable that the Americans have been repulsed as announced in Madrid.

FURTHER DETAILS OF THE FIGHTING.

MADRID, June 23.—1:30 p. m.—Cable dispatches received here from Admiral Cervera say the crews of the Spanish warships at Santiago have joined the land forces in order to take part in the defense of the city.

He adds that the situation is critical, but a later dispatch adds that the Spaniards "have victoriously repulsed the enemy."

A dispatch from the governor of Santiago de Cuba says:

"The attack on Seboney and Baiquiri continued until nightfall. The enemy was repulsed except on the left, at Baiquiri, where the Spaniards were obliged to retire in consequence of a flanking movement upon the part of the enemy, who landed several kilometres east of Baiquiri. The Spanish forces retired in good order into the mountains. Seboney and Berraco were destroyed by the American shells."

NO INFORMATION IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The bulletin from Madrid announcing fighting near Santiago was shown by an Associated Press reporter to Secretary Alger and General Miles who were in conference at 4 o'clock.

They expressed much satisfaction over it but had no additional information. General Miles remarked that he had expected fighting today and that the news showed the carrying out of what he anticipated would be today's developments.

GENERAL MILES HINTS OF A FIGHT.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—General Miles received an interesting dispatch today from one of his aide-de-camps, who is now with General Shafter's army at Baiquiri. He declined to give its text to the public, but said that it merely announced that the landing of the troops was made all right, without any casualty whatever and that the only men met were the Cuban insurgents on the ground.

It stated that one Cuban was struck by the bursting shell and lost his arm and that there were about 5,700 insurgents on hand well armed and under good discipline.

General Miles' correspondence also stated that the troops were in splendid spirits and ready for a fight, "and," said General Miles, "there may be a fight today."

GARCIA CARRIED OUT HIS PLANS.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Authentic information received by the Associated Press in a delayed dispatch dated at Santiago, on Monday the 20th, and received here today, speaks of Shafter's command arriving there Monday, but said it had not yet landed. Garcia and his men were then in camp about eighteen miles west of the city. He had 1,200 men immediately with him, 500 more east of the city and about 4,000 north of the city.

They fought well at Guantanamo. The Cubans are enthusiastic over the arrival of the troops.

There will be 10,000 of them to put at the disposal of the United States forces after the city of Santiago has been stormed and the flag of the United States floats over its walls.

About a fortnight ago Garcia took an effective step to avert the possibility of further Spanish troops being massed at Santiago with those already posted in that town for its defence. A strong force of his men was sent out with instructions to their commander to prevent any aid being sent by the Spanish military commanders at Holquin, where there is an important Spanish garrison, to the Spanish garrison at Santiago

At that time the Spanish forces between Sagtiago and Guantanamo was probably about 12,000 regulars and 3,000 militia men.

NEWS OF THE COURTS.

Three More Divorce Suits Filed--McCulloch Road Established--Items of Interest.

As is usual in June, the supposed month of brides, there are a larger number of divorce suits filed than can possibly be for the public good. In the superior court, through his attorney, E. V. Emrick, William Lohmeyer has filed an application for divorce from Bertha Lohmeyer. The complaint was not on file.

Fred Meyers renews his application for divorce from Caroline Meyers. P. B. Colerick is plaintiff's attorney and has the complaint in his possession. Only a couple of weeks ago Judge Roby refused to give either party a divorce and it is surmised that Meyers has secured further evidence which he proposes to produce in court.

Elizabeth Zepp also makes application for a legal separation from Frederick Zepp.

THE M'CULLOCH ROAD.

The county commissioners today established the McCulloch road in Wayne township. The viewers reported favorably on the road several weeks ago.

NOTES.

G. H. Bodle, a prisoner from the Michigan City prison, was ordered released by United States Commissioner Logan yesterday. Bodle had served his time, but was unable to pay the fine assessed against him and as according to law by serving thirty days extra and then proving his inability to pay, he is entitled to his freedom. Commissioner Logan ordered his release.

L. J. Ninde has filed suit for injunction in the superior court against the Wabash railroad company. The suit is the result of the construction of a new drainage ditch in Lafayette township. This new ditch is calculated to change the channel of an old ditch and to do this successfully part of the old ditch must be used. This old ditch the Wabash company is filling up, and it is to stop this filling process that the injunction is prayed for. The argument will be heard July 6th.

SHAFTER has landed and it is hoped he will soon land Santiago.

THE democratic state ticket is strong, clean and popular. It has the essential qualities of a winner. And it will win.

MARK TWAIN found some words for the whole United States to repeat when he wrote: "I should like to do homage to our soldiers and sailors of today who are enlisted for another most righteous war, and utter the hope that they may make short and decisive work of it and leave Cuba free and fed when they start for home."

OUT of 158 women committed to an insane asylum in St. Louis last year, 104 were classified as having been domestic servants. There must be something more than coincidence in the fact that 66 per cent. of the women lunatics in a town come from one class. And the statement does not, apparently, throw any light whatever on the domestic problem.

THE nomination of Hon. Hugh Dougherty for treasurer of state by the democratic convention Wednesday, was a deserved tribute to the worth of that gentleman and the distinguished service he has rendered the democratic party. Mr. Dougherty will prove one of the most popular and one of the strongest nominees the party has made in recent years. He is a clean, honorable and cultured gentleman, who both strengthens and ornaments the ticket. Mr. Dougherty is a banker in Bluffton, and as a banker two years ago he was an advocate of the financial plank of the Chicago platform. That his advocacy of free silver had a powerful influence in Indiana, there is no denying. Throughout the state, and particularly in the northern part, Mr. Dougherty's hosts of friends will feel honored in his nomination and proud to give him their most ardent support.

"PRACTICE makes perfect," is one of those copybooks precepts that are dinned into the ear and eye of the schoolboy until he is afraid that they are true. The proverb never had better illustration than that which flames from the mouths of the guns of the investing fleet at Santiago. The wildness of the Spanish marksmanship from the steady basis of the land is phenomenal. The accuracy of the gunners on the rolling ships is amazing. Our marksmen handle the big guns with the precision of small arms. The biggest part of the secret is in the word "practice." When the Spanish artillerist was lounging and smoking his cigarettes the American seaman made his gun do the smoking. The subcalibre practice of the naval stations is vindicating itself. When Commodore Dewey was at Hong Kong the shipmen of other nationalities laughed at the American sailors because Dewey's guns kept up the incessant boom of practice work. But there was no laughing in Manila bay as the same guns tore open ship sides and fortress walls and powder magazines. The gunners had learned to hit the target. This war will have its lessons for youth in its spirits and results, but also in its methods. And the old proverb "Practice makes perfect" will be written in large, round letters on Manila paper, and not in Spanish characters on the wrappers of cigarettes.

The Deadly Dynamite Gun.

The foreign experts who feared that the present war would teach them nothing new are beginning to acknowledge that these fears were groundless. Many new naval lessons have been learned and not the least of them was taught by the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius at Santiago this week. This vessel has fired just six shots at the Spanish fortifications, but those six have been sufficient to demonstrate that the pneumatic gun, concerning which there has been so much discussion and so much adverse criticism, is a success. The three guns mounted by the Vesuvius are called dynamite guns. One name will answer as well as another, but as a matter of fact the shells which are hurled by this destructive engine of war are loaded with guncotton and not with dynamite. If the more powerful explosives were substituted the deadly effectiveness of the gun would be greatly increased and the Vesuvius alone could destroy both fortifications and cities, wiping them off the face of the earth with a few shots.

Some of the naval authorities who were most reluctant to admit the efficiency of the Vesuvius and her pneumatic guns are now the first to declare that her success at Santiago means that naval warfare will be revolutionized. If this proves to be the case it will be a step nearer that universal peace which will come when ordnance is improved to the point that war will be too terrible for nations to engage in. European governments have experimented with pneumatic guns, but it remained for Yankee ingenuity to bring them to a high degree of perfection. The Monitor, an American creation, taught the world one lesson and made all the navies of the world obsolete; the Vesuvius, also a product of American brains, may teach an equally important lesson and bring about an equally sweeping revolution.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Kressler, of this city, and William H. Rupp, of Woodburn, Ind., occurred at noon yesterday in Trinity English Lutheran church. The Rev. Samuel Wagenhals officiated. Miss Louisa Trautman attended the bride. After the ceremony a reception was tendered at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rupp, on Spy Run avenue. Besides relatives living in the city, the following relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present from abroad: Mrs. Phoebe Shook, Napoleon, Ohio; Mrs. Calie Baker, Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Lizzie Arnold, Monroeville, Ind. After the reception the guests dispersed, but were at the Wabash depot early this morning to witness the departure of the bridal party. Rice was showered on the bride and groom and a nicely wrapped box, supposed to contain an old pair of shoes, was handed to the bride as she was about to board the train. Mr. and Mrs. Rupp received a large number of presents. They will reside at Woodburn, Ind., where Mr. Rupp is engaged in business.

THE TROOPS LANDED.

The sun-bronzed soldiers, in their slouch hats and service uniforms, quickly searched the buildings and beat up the thickets after landing in search of lurking foes, and marched into the unknown country beyond at nightfall, with long, swinging stride and the alert bearing of the old frontier army men, ready to fight the Spaniards Sioux fashion or in the open, wherever they could be found.

The cheers of their comrades still waiting on the transports, and of the blue jackets and the strains of "Yankee Doodle" from the bands on the transports saluted them as they disappeared from view over the hills of Baiquiri.

NO LIVES LOST.

The landing was accomplished without loss of life, the only casualty being the wounding of an insurgent on the hills by a shell from one of our warships. He will lose his arm.

The insurgent troops at Baiquiri are commanded by General Castillo and are estimated to number 1,000 men.

WOMEN TAKE PART.

Serious Riot Results From Strike in Oshkosh.

Women Armed With Clubs and Bad Eggs Assault Non-Union Men--Situation Is Serious.

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 23.—A serious riot occurred here today as a result of the woodworkers' strike. Several hundred women, armed with clubs, rocks, eggs and paper sacks of pepper, gathered at the south end of Light street bridge, near the Morgan Sash, Door and Blind factory, and waited for workmen endeavoring to enter the factory. The police were powerless to disperse the mob and not a man was allowed to enter the factory, even the proprietors being driven back by threats of violence. Non-union laborers were singled out and chased for blocks, a number of them being struck by stones and eggs.

As a consequence the plant was ordered closed down and the manufacturers are now holding a conference with the city officials.

A similar riot on a smaller scale occurred last night, during which one man had his nose smashed by a stone.

Serious trouble is anticipated, as the strikers are feeling ugly.

Several incendiary fires in the past few days are laid to the strikers and it is feared a resort to force may result in further attempts in this direction.

Last Monday afternoon, at the home of her parents, No. 2 Brookside street, Miss Ruby Johnson celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary. After the games the little ones were ushered into the dining room where refreshments were served. Little Ruby received many beautiful presents.

KIHM AND HIS BAT

Won the Fourth Game of the Series for the Quakers.

The "Dummy" Made Four of the Six Hits and Drove in the Winning Run With a Three-Bagger.

Kihm played with the New Castles yesterday and is responsible for the Quakers third victory over the Hoosiers.

He fell in love with Mr. Brodie's curves and every time he came to the plate smashed the ball somewhere out of the reach of "Pop" Lytle's fielders, making four of the visitor's six hits, "Pop" himself lining out the other two. Kihm played in left field and did not have a chance, only two balls coming to his field. Manager Lytle will probably play the released Fort Wayne favorite on first base hereafter.

Al Fisher was very much in evidence on the Fort Wayne side, in fact he and Tommy Campbell are responsible for the brace of runs scored by the Hoosiers. In the first inning Mr. Fisher was hit by one of Three-Fingered Smith's swift inshoots and in a moment stole second. Spencer and O'Meara fanned and then Tom Campbell sent Fisher across the plate with a pretty single. Hickey fouled out. The Quakers scored in this inning on Lytle's single, Fisher's error and Zinram's slow bounder to Spencer, on which Ganzell was forced at second.

Each side scored again in the fifth. Fisher walked and Spencer sacrificed him to second. O'Meara fouled out and then Tom Campbell hit a three-bagger down the right foul line, Fisher scoring again. Hickey was out from Barclay to Ganzell. Kihm made a hit in the visitor's half, went to second on Nattress' base on balls and scored on Burnett's failure to get Clarence Smith's long fly to left.

No more runs were scored until the ninth. After two visitors had been retired, Ashenbach hit a slow one down toward Spencer. Babb attempted to get it, but "booted" the ball and made a doubtful error. Kihm was next to bat and after two strikes were called hit a long three-bagger between Hickey and Belden and Ashenbach scored the winning run. Score:

NOTES.

Manager Torreyson has released Pitcher Kostal.

Pitcher Hickman, released by Boston, is being hit hard by the Eastern league teams.

Tom Campbell is hitting the ball with more regularity now than any batter in the Inter-State league.

Zinram had the first seven put outs for the Quakers. He caught a fine game and it is a mystery why Youngstown released him.

Clarence Smith is an erratic pitcher. He gave six bases on balls in yesterday's game and still struck out six of the first nine batters. His support was superb.

"Tony" Esterquest, of Youngstown, is something of a shortstop. He had twenty-three chances in the two games Tuesday at Grand Rapids and he did not miss one of them.

President Power has again issued orders to the Inter-State umpires to put off the field every player who attempts to play rowdy ball. Power significantly remarks, "then I will do the rest."

Kihm's batting average in the games played on the Fort Wayne grounds, including yesterday, was .311. While he was a great favorite it was necessary to reduce expenses in some manner and President Meyer believed Kihm could best be spared.

Belden is daily demonstrating that he is the premier outfielder of the Inter-State league. All his put outs yesterday were hard chances and two of them were apparently safe hits. He is as good a judge of a fly ball as Bob Gilks and gets over the outfield territory much faster than Toledo's manager. When he gets back his batting eye Belden will be a crack 'n jack.

Babb mustn't forget that there are others in the game. If he hadn't interferred Spencer might have been able to throw Ashenbach out at first in the ninth. There was a doubt as to this as it was a slow hit. It wasn't Charley's ball, anyhow.

Tomorrow is ladies' day at Lakeside park and there should be a large attendance of the fair sex. Nothing is more encouraging to the ball tossers than to see the grand stand crowded with pretty faces and summer dresses.

"Cy Swaim is the most awkward pitcher I ever batted against," says Billy Hamilton. "Every time he raises his arm to pitch I imagine he wants to shake hands with me. His awkardness and his puzzling high curve ball make him a good pitcher, and he is improving on his fielding."

There is a rustling among the managers. William Barnie, late of Brooklyn, will take charge of the Springfield team and try to carry it through the season. William Joyce is talked of to succeed Stallings at Philadelphia and Stallings will go to Detroit and run Mr. Vanderbeck's team for him. Mullane will step down and out, and in Stallings Detroit will receive its fourth manager of the season.

At Huntington yesterday afternoon the Shamrocks dropped a game to Huntington. The score was 4 to 1. Huntington secured the services of Hutton, Logansport's south paw twirler, for the game. Seven hits were made by the Shamrocks, Smith getting three of them, and Moran, McDarby, Reidy and Fitzpatrick getting one each. But five hits were made off Robbins, who had good speed and all kinds of benders. Robbins has pitched some fine ball this season, but his work yesterday was exceptionally fine.

The theatre is attracting a large crowd this week, the bill is an excellent one. The monologue of John D. Gilbert the comedian, is deserving of mention.

Manager Heilbroner is arranging an attractive program for July 4th, which will be published in a few days.

The regular meeting of the Theosophical society will be held this evening at Vordermark hall, No. 32 Calhoun street. Dr. A. P. Buchman will lecture on "Spiritual Progression." The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock. All persons interested are invited to come.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Drier & Bro.'s drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogerty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by Dreier & Bro., druggists.

Evening Papers the Best Mediums.

[The Business Manager.]

Of daily newspapers there are two distinct classes:

1. The kind that's looked at, and
2. The kind that's read.

The first is printed about three hours before sunrise and left lying about where people are apt to see it when they wake up. And they do get a hurried glimpse of it before settling down to the day's work, but not enough to read and heed the ads in it. The other kind collects the day's news, prints it in the afternoon, and places a copy in almost every home for careful, thoughtful, evening reading. Everybody reads the evening papers, ads and all. The great buying public never really and studiously scans a morning paper, except on Sunday. "Every evening and Sunday" is the most economical and effective advertising anybody can do in a city where daily papers are published. No getting around this proposition. It is positively proven every week in the year in hundreds of American cities.

The evening daily, with few exceptions, is a newspaper with contents covering the world of news, art and science, with everything upon the same plate and everything seasoned to the appetite of the multitude.

Nathaniel Fitch About Eighty-Three Years Old.

Works Every Day in the Pittsburg Freight House--Saw the First Railroad and Rode on the First Car.

One of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens is Nathaniel H. Fitch, of 75 Douglass avenue, who has been a resident of Allen county for over a third of a century. He is a native of Massachusetts, where when a boy he learned the shoemaker's trade and for many years followed that business. In 1854 he was partially crippled by an attack of rheumatism and was compelled to abandon the awl and last and turn his attention to other vocations. He was offered and accepted the positon of express messenger on the Hopkinton and Boston road. Five years later the company gave him charge of one of its express wagons in his native city and he held that position until 1865. Then he resigned and came west, settling in Maples as the passenger and freight agent of the Pennsylvania company.

Mr. Fitch held that office eighteen years, at the same time conducting with his nephew an extensive business in the manufacture of staves. One night, during the busy season, when the yards were well stocked, the factory and its surrounding piles of staves were destroyed by fire, entailing a loss upon the owners of over $25,000, as they were not insured. The works were rebuilt, but owing to a scarcity of rough material and possibly lack of sufficient funds, the firm was not able to regain the business they enjoyed before the fire and after three or four years of indifferent success, they abandoned it entirely. Mr. Fitch then came to Fort Wayne and was given a position in the Pennsylvania freight house, where he has been employed ever since.

Mr. Fitch will be eighty-three years old in July. Notwithstanding his age he is a stout and healthy man, vigorous in mind and body. He says he belongs to a family noted for the longevity of its members. He has two brothers and a sister living back in Massachusetts, who are aged respectively ninety-three, eighty-five and seventy-eight and who are just as strong and healthy apparently as the subject of this sketch. Mr. Fitch can truthfully say what very few men of his age can, viz.: That during his life time he never tasted intoxicating liquors, took a chew of tobacco nor smoked a cigar or pipe. He has always been regular in his hours for retiring at night and getting up in the morning. It is probably to these temperate habits that his remarkable strength and health are now due.

Mr. Fitch's family consists of a wife, three sons and a daughter. One of the boys resides at Mattoon, Ill., one at Jackson, Mich., and the other in this city. The daughter lives in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mr. Fitch can talk interestingly of pioneer railroading. He has distinct recollections of the first railway ever built in America and rode on the Boston and Worchester road in 1830. That line was one of the three first roads in this country. The cars then in use were constructed after the manner of the stage coach of those days, having doors at the side and a seating capacity of eighteen or twenty. The coaches exhibited at the world's fair and alleged to be the first ones ever in use on an American railway were of a later date than the coach Mr. Fitch first beheld. He says they were introduced about the year 1835. The track of the Boston and Worchester was constructed of wooden rails, with strips of iron nailed upon them.

S. F. Bowser & Co. are quietly preparing to raise a flag in the near future. They are not saying much about it now, but THE SENTINEL learns from a reliable source that it will eclipse any of the flags so far unfurled in the city. The Bowsers never do anything by halves.

Employes in the operating department of the Lake Shore road will present their late general manager, W. H. Caniff, an appropriate gift. When he was on the Lake Shore road this could not be done, as it was against the rules of the company for employes to give officers presents, but as president of the Nickel Plate Mr. Caniff can use his pleasure in the matter.

Indianapolis Journal: "The Nickel Plate has resumed discharging employes who visit saloons. Railroad employes must now do one of two things—steer clear of saloons or lose their jobs." This item does not correctly state the situation in Fort Wayne, inasmuch as there have been no recent dismisals here. There are no men employed on the Nickel Plate at this point who are addicted to intoxicating drinks.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 23.—It was after 9 o'clock last night before the work of the democratic state convention was completed by the nomination of a ticket.

After Samuel M. Ralston had been nominated by acclamation for secretary of state the contest began with balloting for a candidate for state auditor.

With the presentation of the names of five candidates for auditor of state it became apparent that the large counties of Marion, Vanderburg and Vigo had entered into a combination to nominate Fanning for auditor, Stockfleth for treasurer and McNutt for attorney general, and the friends of other candidates took alarm and started out to beat the combination. When the fifth ballot was ordered the friends of the candidates for other positions combined on John W. Minor and he was nominated by a vote of 807 to 721 for Fanning.

Marion and Vigo counties tried to carry out their agreement with Vanderburg when candidates for treasurer were placed in nomination and voted for Stockfleth, but Minor's friend's rolled to the support of Hugh Dougherty, of Wells, and he was nominated on the second ballot. W. H. O'Neil withdrew from the race for attorner general before the ballot was ordered, and John G. McNutt, of Vigo, was nominated by acclamation.

The third defeat of the combination of the big counties came when the ballot was taken for clerk of the supreme court. Joseph L. Reilly, of Jennings, was the combination candidate, but was defeated by Henry Warrum, of Marion, who is the only representative of the German element on the ticket and who owes his nomination in part to that fact.

W. S. Sinclair, of Starke county, was nominated for superintendent of public instruction on the second ballot over James W. Nourse, of Spencer.

Out of a field of five candidates the convention nominated James S. Guthrie, of Brown county, for the office of state statistician, and Edward Barrett, of Hendricks, was selected as the party candidate for state geologist over two competitors.

For supreme court judge Judge Hackney and Hugh McMullen were put in nomination from the second judicial district, and the roll call when footed up showed that Hackney had received 1,269 votes to 247 for McMullen.

Judge James McCabe, of Warren county, and Judge Timothy E. Howard, of St. Joseph, were nominated by acclamation for the third and fifth districts respectively.

For judges of the appellate court Edwin Taylor, of Vanburg: C. J. Kollmeyer, of Bartholomew; Edgar A. Brown, of Marion; W. S. Divins, of Madison, and John Kapelka, of Lake, were nominated.

The convention then adjourned.

A Cure for Heartburn.

The burning sensation in the stomach, the pains and suffering which I experienced for five long years, brought on by continued constipation and biliousness, are almost indescribable. I tried every known remedy without effect. Finally I tried Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets, following the directions carefully. After taking a few doses I began to improve. I have not used more than three boxes and feel as well as I ever felt. My restoration to perfect health I attribute solely to the use of Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets, and I only wish I could persuade others to do so as I did and be cured—Logan M. Inspector Leatherman Makes Some Sensational Affidavits.

Inspector Leatherman created a sensation this afternoon by swearing out affidavits against A. L. Meeks, Robt. B. Davis and George W. Lahr, proprietors of the Lincoln Tea company, charging them with wrongfully using the mails. The affidavits allege that the company has been sending out pictures and pamphlets of an indecent character.

Deputy United States Marshal Rose arrested the young men this afternoon and they were taken before United States Commissioner Logan. Samuel Morris was employed to defend them. A nominal bond will be fixed and the gentlemen will then be released until arrangements can be made for a hearing in the near future. The young men are all well known and their friends will be slow to believe that they have been guilty of any violation of the law.

GORMAN UNDER ARREST.

Inspector Leatherman also swore to an affidavit yesterday charging Daniel Gorman with violating the United States postal laws in using the mails to secure property by false representations. It is claimed that he was in the fake produce business under the name of the Indiana Produce company and would secure credit to buy fish by giving the Indiana Produce Co. as reference. It is claimed he secured considerable produce in this manner. Gorman was taken before United States Commissioner Logan this morning and bail was fixed at $200, which he was unable to furnish.

MORE RECRUITS.

Another Chance for Young Men to Join the Army--Tradesmen Wanted.

W. J. Vesey today received a telegram from A. M. Dickson, of Indianapolis, requesting him to secure twenty or twenty-five artisans, masons, carpenters and blacksmiths for enlistment in the engineer corps, which is now being organized in Indiana by Captain Dickson. The pay is from $15.60 to $40 a month and the recruits may be secured immediately.

Mr. Vesey appointed A. J. Young to secure the men and Mr. You has secured quarters in the city clerk's office where artesans desiring to join the engineering corps can come and be examined. The telegram asks that these men be sent immediately and there will be no delay.

Adjutant H. K. Scott writes that he will not open a recruiting office in Fort Wayne until he has secured his quota of men from Auburn and Angola. This means that he will not be here until some time next week. The recruiting office will be in the Drs. Barnett's office on West Wayne street and Dr. Schrader will be the examining physician.

"Old Glory" in Bloomingdale.

A pretty and patriotic scene was witnessed at the Trinity Lutheran school yesterday evening at 6:30, the occasion being the raising of a beautiful flag on the school building. A large number of people had assembled on the school grounds and in the streets to join in the cheers for the star spangled banner. The following program was carried out in a highly creditable manner: "Flag drill," by the pupils of the school; raising the flag, by August Fahlsing and Hy. Brinkroger; song, "Columbia," by the school; recitation, "Salute Old Glory," by Otto Lenz; address, by Rev. J. Bohn; recitation, "Flag of the Heroes," by Hulda Keller; song, "America," by the entire school.

Both teachers and pupils are entitled to much credit in arranging and carrying out the program. They maintain that a good Lutheran is always a good patriot.

A ROYAL WELCOME

Given the New Recruits by the Boys at Chickamauga.

Sergeant Fred Meyer Elected Second Lieutenant--Corporal Snowberger Promoted--Notes.

THE SENINEL is in receipt of the following letter from its correspondent at Camp Thomas:

HEADQUARTERS TWENTY-EIGHTH INDIANA LIGHT BATTERY,
CHICKAMAUGA PARK, GA.
Monday, June 15, '98.

TO THE SENTINEL:

The last couple of days have been very pleasant ones for the Twenty-eight Indiana battery boys on account of the arrival of a number of new men from home, some of whom are close friends and companions of some of the boys who came down here with the battery on the first call. Saturday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock the first squad of new men, who left Fort Wayne on Friday at 12:35, came into camp in charge of Phrot. C. Ligget. Their arrival at our quarters was the cause of a great excitement. They had been expected for several days and as soon as they marched into sight all men off duty rushed up and greeted them royally. They were lined up in front of the officers' tents and reported and were then dismissed into the care of the boys, and to say they were well taken care of would be putting it rather mildly. It is certain they will never forget their first day in camp.

This first squad had no difficulty in finding our camp as they were accompanied by Corporal Geo. Depner, who went home with Captain Ranke to attend to some private business, but the second squad was not so fortunate.

The squad of recruits, who left Fort Wayne Saturday morning at 7:10 arrived at Lytle Station, two miles from our camp, at 10:30 yesterday morning, but as they were not expected until today no one was at the depot to meet them and so they had to start out for themselves and find our camp. After strolling all over Chickamauga Park they came into our quarters at about 1:30 and, of course, were also given a hearty welcome.

Today the new men were "broken in." First Sergeant Fred Meyer had been saving some special work for them, and if the friends at home could have stepped into camp they would have seen some men digging ditches, shoveling dirt, raking up rubbish, riding mules to water, etc., who were not exactly cut out for that kind of work.

About 11 o'clock this morning Lieut. Frank Alderman received a telegram from Captain Ranke, ordering him to hold an election for a junior second lieutenant—a new office made necessary in a six-gun battery. The assembly call was sounded at once and in a few minutes the entire company was in line, for what they did not know, but Lieutenant Alderman announced his orders and, while the boys were somewhat taken by surprise, they were fully equal to the occasion. Immediately the nominations brought out First Sergeant Fred J. Meyer, Sergeant Clyde Snowberger and Corporal C. C. Mungen as candidates. Sergeant Snowberger declined to be a candidate and the nominations closed with Sergeant Meyer and Corporal Mungen as the only candidates. The result of the first ballot showed Meyer elected. Lieutenant Alderman then appointed Sergeant Snowberger to succeed Meyer. It is now Junior Second Lieutenant Fred J. Meyer and First Sergt. Clyde Snowberger. After the announcement of the result of the election and the new appointment the boys circled around the promoted officers and picking them up, carried them on their shoulders around the camp amid rousing cheers. Both men are popular with the boys and are well deserving of the advance. Sergeant Snowberger assumed his new duties today, but Lieutenant Meyers will not for a few days until his commission arrives. The promotion of Sergeant Snowberger and the returning home of Sergeant Fred Manne will cause two vacancies among the sergeants and boys are now wondering who the fortunate ones will be to receive the appointments.

Yesterday afternoon there was an open air meeting of the Odd Fellows in camp. Several prominent speakers from different states were present and delivered short and interesting addresses. The Fort Wayne Battery was represented by Corporal John Vordermark and Private Paul Bauman. A committee of one man from each regiment in camp was appointed to canvass his regiment and learn how many I. O. O. F. men they had. Another meeting is announced for next Sunday afternoon at which the subject of organizing a general army lodge will be taken up.

The Atlanta, Ga., battery came into camp last Saturday, fully equipped with men and horses, but no guns yet. This makes ten batteries of artillery now in camp here, but none of them are yet fully equipped with guns and ready for the field. For this reason it is not expected that any orders to move the artillery will be received soon.

NOTES.

Corporal Andy Christon received a box of smoked meats last Saturday from Fred Helling, jr., and at the same time Private Billy Brown had received a large box of good things to eat from home. Both the men were so delighted that they locked themselves up in their tent and were lost to the world for a couple of hours.

The second section, better known among the boys here as the Irish section, under command of Sergeant John Casten, is now comfortably located in a new home. This section lost their tent a week ago by fire, caused, the boys say, by Corporal "Red" Mungen going into the tent with his hat off.

Jack VanRoy has been assigned to a place in the United States signal corps and will assume his new duties tomorrow. This will take him away from the battery, and, while the boys hate to have him leave, they are glad of the advance he has made.

While THE SENTINEL representative was passing the gang in the ditch this afternoon Dr. Evans, who was manipulating a pick, stopped work long enough to say that if he was to be considered as third cousin to "Fighting Bob" Evans he thought he ought to be assigned to "something light." At this juncture Charley Eckart, who when at home is a disciple of Blackstone, came up out of the ditch and leaning on his shovel said: "Tell Jim Robinson, Sam Morris and Henry Colerick that I delivered their best regards to the boys, as requested, and they were thankfully received, and please send my respects to the Allen County Bar association."

Joe O'Connell, one of the ditch detail, says he thought he was joining the army when he left home, but that his first day's work suggests working on a railroad section.

George Shaefer says that if he never gets any nearer Cuba than he is now he will feel as if he is well repaid for his trouble, for he has seen something he could not see in Fort Wayne.

Sunday noon privates Frank Kinsey and Del Bowser, who are on the cooking detail, tried to lift a large pan of hot water off the stove and accidently spilled the water into the fire, putting it all out. Kinsey was seen hopping around on one foot asking Bowser what was the matter, and after taking an inventory it was found that neither one was hurt but only badly scared.

Hon. Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, addressed a large crowd of soldiers at the Wisconsin Y. M. C. A. tent last evening and a large number of our men were in attendance.

TWO YOUNG THIEVES

Arrested by Officer Spillner at Their Homes Today.

Enter a John Street Saloon and Steal Cigars, Whisky and Tobacco.

This morning Edward Nowek, who conducts a saloon at No. 263 John street, reported to Officer Spillner that during the night some one had entered his place and stole three boxes of cigars, some quart bottles of whisky and some tobacco. The officer remembered that last night he and Officer Collins met Frank Brosowski and Herman R. Kuhl returning from a dance and they acted rather peculiarly. The officer went to the boys' homes and questioned them and finally they admitted having stolen the stuff most of which was found hidden away in young Kuhl's home on Green street. The lads are about eighteen years old and had secured a key which fit the lock in the saloon door making entrance to the place rather easy. They are locked up pending a hearing and the stolen goods is on exhibition at the police station.

A vivacious woman's fan can frequently speak in more eloquent language than any known to the tongue of man. It can invite or repel, sigh or smile, beckon or be haughty, tear a passion to tatters or humbly seek forgiveness. It can also tell the story of health. A woman who suffers from weakness and disease in a womanly way sits in sorrow and dejection while her healthy sisters enjoy themselves. She may be naturally beautiful, naturally attractive, naturally interesting and animated and witty, but the demon of ill-health is gnawing at the very vitals of her womanly nature, and she soon becomes a withered wall flower in comparison with her brighter and more healthy sisters. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wonderful medicine for women who suffer in this way. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood. It tones and builds up the shattered nerves. It restores the glow of health to the pallid cheek. It gives springiness and trip to the carriage. It makes the eyes sparkle with returning vivacity. It imparts animation to the men and gestures. The fan that long lay listless and idle in the lap of an invalid again speaks the eloquent language of a healthy, happy woman. Thousands of women have testified to the marvelous merits of this wonderful medicine.

"For several years I suffered with prolapsus of the uterus," writes Miss A. Lee Schuster, of Box 15, Rodney, Jefferson Co., Miss. "Our family physician treated me for kidney trouble, and everything else but the right thing. I grew worse and worse. My body was emaciated, hands and feet clammy and cold, stomach weak, with great palpitation of the heart. I would suffer with nausea all night. I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' and I began to improve right away. I have taken three bottles and now I am very nearly well and am very happy and thankful to you."

Keep your head up and your bowels open. The "Golden Medical Discovery" will put steel in your backbone, and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure constipation.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS

The Session Closed With a Lecture by Rev. Frank Crane.

A Large Audience Heard the Eloquent Speaker—The Roster of Officers Chosen by Delegates.

The Epworth league convention has adjourned, the closing feature of the three days session being the lecture last night by Rev. Frank Crane, of Chicago, who talked on "What Will You Do With It?" The auditorium of the Wayne street church was crowded to its fullest capacity by delegates and citizens who desired to hear the eloquent divine. Dr. Crane is editor in the department of pulpit comment in the Chicago Record and is thoroughly conversant with the subject he discussed, the theme of his lecture being the possibilities of youth. He asked "What would you do with a million dollars, or in other words, with unlimited wealth?" He told what many people had done with that much money and showed the numerous mistakes made in the using of it.

"What would you do with unlimited physical strength? That is the dream of the boys. They wish to be big and strong and the old Greek champions are their heroes.

"What would you do if you had unlimited knowledge, which is another form of power? Or if you had unlimited beauty?

"The possession of youth is better than all of these, so far as our real happiness is concerned. And this is the importance of youth. Youth is the time of life when we settle the most important questions of life; not the questions of state, perhaps, but the questions of our hearts, our homes and our religion. It is then that the problem of marriage comes up and is often, nearly always, settled.

"Youth is the time of life, when life gets its flavor, its characteristics. It is the period of romance. That is when the peach blow comes into the life if at all."

In answer to the question 'What will you do?' the Rev. Craine said: "Don't be a baby. Be a man. The art of youth consists in leaving off the babyish and in putting on the manliness."

The prize banner to the junior league making the best showing in the work of the society was awarded to the Bluffton league, although the Blufftonites were very close pressed by the Angola chapter. Rev. T. M. Guild conducted a farewell consecration service.

SMITH-TYLER.

A Pretty Wedding at the English Lutheran Church.

Miss Haidee Tyler Became the Bride of Porsifor Smith—They Will Reside in Crestline, Ohio.

Just as the bells were ringing the 6 o'clock hour last evening Miss Haidee Winnette Tyler became the happy bride of Porsifor F. Smith. Rev. Samuel Wagenhals performed the ceremony in the Trinity Lutheran church before a number of the fashionable people of the city. The ceremony was a most impressive one, the ring service being used. The church was simply but beautifully decorated. The chancel rail was trimmed with bands of arbor vitae and marguerites. Palms and ferns were plentiful enough in the back ground to fill the vacant space in the chancel and about the pulpit. Large clusters of the catalpa blossoms and vases of other white flowers brightened the scene. The ushers were Messrs. Will Wood, of Toledo; Clifford S. Sims, of Allegheney, and Fred Hoffman, H. C. Rockhill, E. H. Olds, and E. J. Woodworth, of this city, and the bridesmaids were Misses Katherine Hoffman, Elizabeth Knight, Emma Barode and Mary Smith, of Crestline. The bride entered the church with her father, Clark Stanton and met the groom and his best man, Louis Hass, of New Castle, Pa., at the altar, where the marriage service was read by Rev. Wagenhals.

She was graceful and handsome in a costume of white satin, made entrain. She wore a veil of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mr. Will Stanton, of Detroit, acted as master of ceremonies.

The members of the bridal party and immediate relatives then went directly to "The Cedars," the home of the bride, the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. John Orff. Congratulations were followed by a delicious supper.

The guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stanton, of Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Mrs. Anna H. Smith and Miss Mary Smith, of Crestline, Ohio, mother and sister of the groom; Mrs. Frank McKinnie, of Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Will Stanton, of Detroit; Miss Alice Nelson, of Logansport, and Miss Laura Grange, of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the limited for the east and will reside in Crestline, where the groom is the master mechanic of the Pennsylvania shops.

A SECOND DISH.

Proved Too Much for Actual Need and Showed the Value of Condensed Food.

"When the new food was first placed in my store I took a package home to try. The name, 'Grape-Nuts,' had attracted my attention and the statement that it was partly composed of grape-sugar excited my interest, as we all know that grape sugar, made by certain methods of treating the cereals, is one of the most nourishing and digestible articles that can be eaten.

"I rather expected to like the food, but was not expecting that the children would take so kindly to it. Each one of the little folks, however, passed up the saucer for a second supply and so did I.

"It is a delicious novelty and very grateful to the palate. I found, about midway in my second dish, that I had sufficient for a meal and realized for the first time that I was eating a condensed food that supplies ones wants with a few spoonsful and does not require anything like the volume to furnish the amount of food required as when any of the ordinary forms of cereals are served. Grape Nuts are an elegant food and the Postum Cereal Co., Lim., are to be congratulated upon the discovery," said M. C. Goossen, the well known fancy grocer of Grand Rapids.

UNABLE TO SEE FROM ECZEMA

I suffered with Eczema of the worst kind, my face and neck down to my shoulders was one inflammation, was not able to see out of my eyes for quite a while, and was unable to sleep for weeks, on account of the severe pain, which nearly drove me insane. My face and neck were swollen and made me look hideous. Had three doctors at different times, and not one of them could relieve me of my pain, swelling, and blotches. I used three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, four boxes CUTICURA (ointment), three cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and my friends and one of the doctors are surprised, and asked, "Who cured you?" and I tell them quickly, "CUTICURA REMEDIES." THE TROOPS LANDED.

General Shafter's Army of Invasion Now on Cuban Soil.

NOT A LIFE LOST IN MAKING THE SHORE.

NEW YORK, June 23.—A special dated at Playa Del Este, Cuba, today, says that at 1 o'clock this morning the last of General Shafter's army of invasion had landed at Baiquiri.

THE LANDING OF THE ARMY OF INVASION.

(Copyright 1898, by the Associated Press.)

ON BOARD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH BOAT WANDA, Baiquiri Harbor, Cuba, Wednesday, June 22, 5 p. m.—Via Kingston, Jamaica, Thursday, June 23.—5:40 a. m.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon, 6,000 trained American soldiers are encamped in the hills in and around Baiquiri, and 10,000 more rest on their arms on board transports off shore, ready to join those who have debarked as soon as the available launches and small boats can carry them ashore.

Time and sea and weather were propitious for the army of invasion. The army and the navy co-operated splendidly, and as the big war ships closed in on the shore to pave the way for the approach of the transports and then went back again, three cheers for the navy went up from 10,000 throats on the troop ships and three cheers for the army rose from ship after ship as the troop ships moved in to take their share in the hazardous game.

THE CUBANS BORE THEIR SHARE.

It was war, and it was magnificent. The Cuban insurgents, too, bore their share in the enterprise honorably and well. Five thousand of them, in mountain fastnesses and dark thickets of ravines, lay all last night on their guns watching every road and mountain path leading from Santiago de Cuba to Guantanamo. A thousand of them were within sight of Baiquiri, making the approach of the Spaniards under cover of the darkness an impossibility.

At 4 o'clock this morning, as the Associated Press dispatch boat approached Baiquiri, the entire island of Cuba seemed wrapped in soft mist like that of the dog days in northern latitude. Dull, leaden clouds lay on the eastern horizon, and the color was reflected in the gray waters of the ocean, which gently undulated in the lazy breeze.

Distant objects loomed dimly, but it was seen that many of the troop ships that had been lying several miles in the offing had drawn in toward shore, while three or four warships lay menacingly near the harbor approach. All around the transports, steam launches and small boats were bobbing about like corks, the first indication of the true object of the undertaking ahead.

AN INSPIRING SCENE.

An hour later the sun was rising in the eastern sky, touching the mountain tops with patches of light green and revealing the great semi-circle of troopships, some close to the coast line, others a mile distant, with their decks crowded with eager, expectant men, impatient to begin the great movement of destiny, to make a new chapter in the history of America, the first invasion by our army of a foreign country in half a century.

As the dispatch boat of the Associated Press ran closer in, near where the New Orleans was lying with her great Armstrong guns trained on Baiquiri, tongues of lurid flame and black smoke were seen rising from the town, the inevitable consequence of war and a sure sign that the Spaniards had gone, leaving ruin behind them.

The captain of the New Orleans shouted the news to the dispatch boat, adding:

"You had better keep off a little. You are in range. They have a rifle on the hill on the eastern side of Baiquiri."

There is a steep, rocky hill, known as Punta Baiquiri, rising almost perpendicularly at the place indicated. It is a regular Gibraltar in possibilities of defense. From the staff at its summit the Spanish flag was defiantly floating at sunset last night, but it was gone this morning and with it the small Spanish guard which had maintained the signal station.

SPANIARDS FIRED THE TOWN.

Between nightfall and dawn, the Spaniards had taken the alarm and fled from the place, firing the town as they left. The flames were watched with interest from the ships. Two sharp explosions were heard.

At first they were thought to be the report of guns from Spanish masked batteries, but they proved to be the explosion of ammunition in the burning building. Three hours waiting made the men on the transports impatient to get ashore and in action, and every move of the warships was closely watched by the soldiers.

A little before 9 o'clock the bombardment of the batteries of Jaargua was begun by the ships of Rear Admiral Sampon's fleet. This was evidently a feint to cover the real point of attack, Jaragua being about half way between Baiquiri and Santiago de Cuba.

The bombardment lasted about twenty minutes. The scene then quickly shifted back again to the great semi-circle of the transport fleet before Baiquiri.

At 9:40 o'clock the New Orleans opened fire with a gun that sent a shell rumbling and crashing against the hillside. The Detroit, Wasp, Machias and Suwanee followed suit and soon the hillsides and the valleys seemed to be ablaze as shot followed shot in swift succession amid the wild and excited cheering of the soldiers on the transports.

In five minutes the sea was alive with flotillas of small boats, headed by launches, speeding for Baiquiri dock. Some of the boats were manned by crews of sailors, while others were rowed by the soldiers themselves.

Each boat contained sixteen men, everyone in fighting trim and carrying three days' rations, a shelter tent, a gun and 200 cartridges ready to take the field on touching the shore should they be called upon to do so.

FIRE NOT RETURNED.

The firing of the warships proved to be a needless precaution, as their shots were not returned and no Spaniards were visible.

Two correspondents of the Associated Press, in a small boat, joined the first flotilla that went ashore and witnessed the inspiring sight of the landing.

General Shafter, on board the Seguranca, closely watched the landing of the troops. Brigadier General Lawton, who had been detailed to command the landing party, led the way in a launch, accompanied by his staff, and directed the formation of the line of operation.

A detachment of eighty regular infantry soldiers was the first to land, followed by General Shafter's old regiment, the First infantry. Then came the Twenty-fifth infantry, the Twenty-second infantry, the Tenth infantry, the Seventh and Twelfth infantry, the Second Massachusetts regiment and a detachment of the Ninth calvary.

RIVALRY TO BE FIRST TO LAND.

The boats rushed forward simultaneously from every quarter in good natured rivalry to be the first, and their occupants scrambled over one another to leap ashore

As the boats tossed about in the surf breaking against the pier, getting ashore was no easy matter, and the soldiers had to throw their rifles on the dock before they could climb up themselves and some bad tumbles resulted, but nobody was hurt.

At the end of the pier the companies and regiments quickly lined up and were marched away.

General Lawton threw a strong detachment, for the night, about six miles west, on the road to Santiago, and another detachment was posted to the north of the town, among the hills. The regular troops were quartered in the town, some of them being housed in the buildings of the iron company.

Others of the troops were quartered in deserted houses, while others still preferred the shelter of their tents in the adjoining fields.

The morning's fire, it was seen, destroyed the round house, the repair shops and several small dwellings.

THE TOWN DESERTED.

The town was deserted when the troops landed, but women and

Aguinaldo Has Made a Compact With Dewey.

Pledges That No Massacre Shall Take Place.

The Insurgent Leader is Waiting the Arrival of American Troops Before Taking the City.

LONDON, June 23.—The Manila railroad company, having offices in this city, has received a cable message saying that though the Philippine insurgents have captured all but the inner city of Manila, they are respecting property and are refraining from looting.

A London agent of the insurgents claims to have information that General Aguinaldo has made a compact with Rear Admiral Dewey not to attack the walled city until the American troops arrive, when the Americans and the insurgents will co-operate.

REST IN PEACE.

Remains of Father Brammer Consigned to the Grave.

Thousands of People Pay Loving Tribute to the Departed Prelate—Very Rev. M. E. Campion Preached the Sermon.

Mid tears and flowers and surrounded by thousands of sorrowing friends and parishioners, the remains of the late beloved Father Brammer were today consigned to their last resting place, underneath the sanctuary in which he had so devotedly served the Lord for more than thirty years.

The Cathedral was filled to overflowing with Fort Wayne people, Catholics and Protestants, who came to pay their last respects to a devoted Christian and a progressive citizen.

The Cathedral was heavily draped in mourning, interspersed here and there with festoons of evergreens. The drapery was not confined to the auditorium, but the outside of the edifice was strung with bolts of mourning. The casket in which lay the dead prelate was set at the front of the center aisle at the foot of the altar, the head slightly raised, so that in every part of the Cathedral the familiar countenance could be easily seen. The countenance presented the appearance of peaceful sleep and rest.

The funeral services were held at 9 o'clock. First came the office of the dead, followed by solemn pontifical high mass, with the following officers:

Celebrant—The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Rademacher.

Assistant—Rev. Henry Boeckelman, Elkhart.

Deacons of Honor—The Rev. P. F. Roche, Lafayette; the Rev. M. J. Bryne, of Whiting.

Master of Ceremonies—The Rev. C. B. Guendling, the Rev. J. Dondurand, the Rev. W. J Quinlan, of Marion, and the Rev. J. F. Durham.

The sermon was preached by the Very Rev. M. E. Campion, of Logansport, a dear and close friend of the deceased vicar general. He paid a loving tribute to the nobility of character, the Christian fortitude and the universal kindness of the devoted priest. During his discourse hundreds of people shed tears of regret as they realized that too true were the words spoken of him who was about to be consigned to the grave.

After the sermon the remains were carried to the north side of the church, and through the entrance to the vault. There, under the altar at which he so often offered up prayers for others, the body of Father Brammer was laid to rest beside his predecessor, Monsignor Benoit and Bishops Leurs and Dwenger.

The attendance of priests at the funeral was very large, almost every reverend of the diocese being present, notwithstanding that communion services were being held in many places. It is believed at least 100 priests were in attendance at the obsequies.

DELEGATES RETURN.

Successful State Meeting of the Modern Woodmen—May Meet Here Next Summer.

M. S. Willson, H. A. Ulenhake, Frank Howenstien and George B. Freeby returned this morning from Lafayette, where they had been in attendance upon the state convention of Modern Woodmen. The gentlemen report having had a most enjoyable time and a very successful convention. Mr. Freeby was elected a member of the board of directors. The delegates from Fort Wayne boomed Fort Wayne for the next state convention and believe that at the log rolling, which is held in Rushville next September, it will be decided to come here next year.

Cervera's Guns are Being Mounted on Shore at Santiago.

MILITARY SITUATION IN EASTERN CUBA.

(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)

IN GENERAL GARCIA'S CAMP, Auren Deras, Santiago de Cuba, June 22, per the Associated Press Dispatch Boat Wanda, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 27.—7. a. m.—A Cuban who left the city of Santiago on Monday night arrived at General Garcia's camp on Tuesday morning with accurate maps of the harbor and of the earthworks surrounding it. The ships of Admiral Cervera have moved from the positions they were in three days ago, and now lie in almost a circle, surrounding a small island and lighthouse about half way up the four-mile harbor.

The armored cruiser Cristobal Colon, which is uninjured, lies to the west, commanding with her port battery the narrow neck of the harbor, while the Vizcaya, also uninjured, lies to the east, her starboard battery looking down on the same neck.

Both of the Spanish torpedo boat destroyers are temporarily disabled, one having been struck by fragments of the shells that sunk the Reina Mercedes and the other having her boiler tubes and engines in course of repairs.

The most important statement made was in substance that the torpedo boats have not since their arrival here made any attempt to leave, being unable to do so. The ships have only half their supplies of coal, although some coal arrived by overland route two week ago.

The shell that sunk the Reina Mercedes was fired by the Massachusetts.

Beyond this loss and the quite large loss of life incident to it, there was little or no damage done. The earthworks were disturbed and one smooth bore gun was dismounted on the west battery.

Seven new guns are being put up facing the sea, three of which, on the west are ships guns of the six inch rapid-fire variety and automatic guns of all descriptions, it appears, are being dismounted from the ships and mounted on the earthworks surrounding the city.

A new line of trenches has been dug about a mile and a half from the city. The Spanish soldiers known as the regular troops are on half rations and no rations or supplies are furnished to the local Spanish forces, numbering about 3,000.

They are compelled to forage for themselves.

The spirit of discontent, it also seems, is very widespread among the Spanish troops and an uprising in Santiago de Cuba is feared.

There is an absolute lack of drugs in Santiago and, finally, the crews of the Spanish warships are on half rations.

MILITARY SITUATION IN EASTERN CUBA.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The military situation at Santiago de Cuba, so far as the war and navy departments know, remains precisely as it was at sundown yesterday. Troops are being landed from General Shafter's corps, and this landing has not yet been completed.

Neither Shafter nor Sampson have reported since the two cablegrams received last night. It is gathered from these, taken in connection with the press reports, that only one landing in a military sense has been made, but naturally with so large a number of transports to be discharged, the troops have been scattered up and down the beach for several miles.

The cable station is within seven miles of the point where the debarkation is going on. The officials here say that this work cannot be completed for several days, although of course the troops without their supplies may be all ashore before that time.

One fact appears, namely: that General Shafter is arranging himself the details of landing, advised by Sampson and perhaps Garcia, and that the military authorities have allowed him to exercise his discretion in this, for they do not know whether he will make more than one landing or just here that landing is.

One beneficial effect from the landing at Baiquiri will be to distract the attention of the Spanish from the harbor of Guantanamo. The mines having been probably all removed, and the forts that commanded the lower harbor having been silenced, with the disappearance of the Spaniards from the country surrounding the bay the navy will be in full possession of what it has long wished for—an absolutely safe and land-locked harbor in which all of Sampson's fleet and the transports as well can find refuge from any West Indian cyclones.

Gen. Greely received a dispatch today from Lieutenant Colonel Allen, of the signal service, in charge of the cable station established at Playa de Este, Cuba. It did not relate to military operations, but from the fact that no reference was made to important developments, it was inferred that the situation has not changed materially since last night when the landing of troops was in progress. Colonel Allen will make Playa de Este the cable base, but in addition to this a military cable line will be stretched from that point westward along the coast to the headquarters of General Shafter.

By this shore loop General Shafter will be brought into direct cable communication with the war department.

Colonel Allen is now hurrying forward preparations in this direction. He had all the material necessary for the shore loop, with instruments and operators ready to work the line as soon as the army had quarters fixed.

It is not quite clear thus far at what point General Shafter and his main body of troops have established their base. The official dispatches to the secretary of war and secretary of the navy spoke of landing at Baiquiri, and a demonstration at Cabanas.

Other official messages stated that the landing was going on simultaneously at two points, making an assault on Santiago in the front and rear. The press dispatches also speak of Juraga as a probable point of landing. At whatever one of these points General Shafter takes up his base the military telegraph lines will connect them with Playa del Este and thence to the war department. Being strictly a military line, the cable from headquarters to Playa del Este will not be open for commercial business, although the authorities will be disposed to give the press such facilities as are possible under the circumstances.

Most of the unofficial messages, however, will have to be handled from Playa del Este in order to avoid glutting the military loop.

Army officers were intently scanning the map of the country around Santiago today with a view of locating the troops and fixing their formation on the eve of the advance. Baiquiri is about fifteen miles due east from the mouth of Santiago harbor. A small river runs inland at that point, affording additional facilities for landing. The map shows a road direct from Baiquiri to the entrance of Santiago harbor, and thence along the harbor to the city of Santiago.

Besides this road, a railroad starts a few miles west of Baiquiri, circling along the coast up to the mouth of Santiago harbor.

Juragia, the other point mentioned in the dispatches, is midway between Baiquiri and Santiago harbor. It also has a small stream, giving additional facilities for landing, and the railroad appears to take its start along the coast from that point. Back of this railroad and highway the interior shows mountainous formations which would make the progress of an army difficult.

It seems evident from an examination of the military map that General Shafter's troops at Baiquiri or Juragua will move westward along the highway, perhaps utilizing the railroad and thus approaching Santiago from the southeast. Distinct from this landing, which is east of Santiago harbor, it seems evident that at least a part of General Shafter's forces will land west of the harbor, thus allowing an attack on Santiago from the northwest.

Miss Bessie Jefferson, formerly of the law offices of Lowry, Spencer & Lowry and George F. Felts, has accepted a position with the Fort Wayne Electric corporation. She leaves the situation she has long held with high recommendations from her past employers. Miss Jefferson's duties in her new position began this afternoon.

Captain W. F. Ranke and Henry Niemeyer left at 12:45 today for Chickamauga, the captain having finished his labors and closed up the recruiting quarters last evening. Mr. Niemeyer has enlisted in the battery and will be mustered in with the members of the two squads which went down last week.

The young people of the city are invited to meet at the Y. W. C. A. on Berry street to organize a loyal temperance meeting June 25, at 2 p. m. Mrs. C. S. Ridenour, superintendent, assisted by Miss Anna Philley and Miss Jessie Drake, will conduct the meeting.

FIFTY THOUSAND MEN

A Mighty Army Now in Camp at Chickamauga.

Recruits Arriving Daily by Hundreds.

Soldiers are Uniformed and Being Armed.

General Brooke's Army Will be the Best Equipped Yet to Take the Field Against Spain.

CHATTANOOGA, National Military Park, Tenn., June 23.—No orders of any kind affecting the present status of General Brook's army have been received and the work of preparing the men for the field is going forward rapidly and satisfactory. There are now at the park nearly 47,000 men and these are being added to daily from 500 to 700 recruits. Yesterday and last night the largest number yet to arrive in one day came in, there being about 1,500 arrivals in the city.

Including the payment to the Twelfth New York this week, it is estimated that $310,000 has been paid to volunteers at Chickamauga since the army was mobilized here.

The regular government pay day for many of the regiments is approaching, and some of the regiments have been mustered in for more than thirty days and have not yet been paid. Work on the pay rolls will begin in a few days.

Everything is now moving smoothly at the park. The men are all contented, and are working with a good will. The quartermaster's department has been thoroughly systematized, so that there is no longer the slightest difficulty for the men to get plenty of good, wholesome food. The regiments are now equipped with new uniforms and are being armed as rapidly as the guns can be turned out of the arsenal.

Other needed small equipments are being added daily, and it is now believed that this army would be the best equipped of any to go into the field.

RUSSIA FRIENDLY.

New Ambassador Brings Good Will of the Czar.

Count De Cassini Received at the White House Today by President McKinley.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 23.—Russia's first ambassador to the United States, Count De Cassini, was formally presented to the president at 11 o'clock today by the secretary of state.

The ambassador, who was accompanied by his secretary and other attaches, was received in the blue parlor of the executive mansion, where he delivered to the president his letter accrediting him to this government.

All were in complete court costume. In the course of a brief address, the ambassador spoke of the friendly relations that had always existed between the Russian empire and the United States and expressed the hope that these cordial relations would continue for many years to come.

The ambassador laid special emphasis upon this part of his address. Altogether the speech was exceedingly friendly and cordial in tone, and did not contain a sentence not in entire accord with a feeling of perfect good will and friendship.

The president's reply was in the same amicable vein.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. Amassa Kocher and little daughter, Leota, have gone to the country to visit a week with friends.

J. S. Knox, a nephew of E. G. Anderson, of this city, has been promoted from a captaincy to major of the Thirty-fifth Michigan regiment.

Joseph Singmaster, the Main street job printer, has returned from Indianapolis, where he attended the democratic state convention.

The thimble party of the Wayne street M. E. church, which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Susan Burns, No. 52 Brackenridge street, has been postponed until next Wednesday afternoon on account of the funeral of the late John M. Miller.

A BIG BATTLE IS ON.

MILES HINTS THAT A BATTLE IS WAGING.

MADRID, June 23.—4 p. m.—News of serious fighting near Santiago de Cuba has been received here. Admiral Cervera cables that the situation is critical and the governor of Santiago admits that the Spaniards have been obliged to retire, but a Spanish victory is claimed.

SPANISH CLAIM TO HAVE REPULSED ATTACK.

MADRID, June 23.—4 p. m.—The minister for war, General Correa, it is announced, has received an official dispatch from Santiago de Cuba, announcing that "the Americans' first attack on Puenta Berraco has been repulsed after a hard fought and bloody engagement."

Puenta Berraco is situated a short distance from Baiquiri, where the United States troops landed yesterday. It is nearer the coast and therefore more completely under the guns of the American fleet from which it can be judged that it is highly improbable that the Americans have been repulsed as announced in Madrid.

FURTHER DETAILS OF THE FIGHTING.

MADRID, June 23.—4:30 p. m.—Cable dispatches received here from Admiral Cervera say the crews of the Spanish warships at Santiago have joined the land forces in order to take part in the defense of the city.

He adds that the situation is critical, but a later dispatch adds that the Spaniards "have victoriously repulsed the enemy."

A dispatch from the governor of Santiago de Cuba says:

"The attack on Seboney and Baiquiri continued until nightfall. The enemy was repulsed except on the left, at Baiquiri, where the Spaniards were obliged to retire in consequence of a flanking movement upon the part of the enemy, who landed several kilometres east of Baiquiri. The Spanish forces retired in good order into the mountains. Seboney and Berraco were destroyed by the American shells."

NO INFORMATION IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The bulletin from Madrid announcing fighting near Santiago was shown by an Associated Press reporter to Secretary Alger and General Miles who were in conference at 1 o'clock.

They expressed much satisfaction over it but had no additional information. General Miles remarked that he had expected fighting today and that the news showed the carrying out of what he anticipated would be today's developments.

GENERAL MILES HINTS OF A FIGHT.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—General Miles received an interesting dispatch today from one of his aide-de-camps, who is now with General Shafter's army at Baiquiri. He declined to give its text to the public, but said that it merely announced that the landing of the troops was made all right, without any casuality whatever and that the only men met were the Cuban insurgents on the ground.

It stated that one Cuban was struck by the bursting shell and lost his arm and that there were about 5,700 insurgents on hand well armed and under good discipline.

General Miles' correspondence also stated that the troops were in splendid spirits and ready for a fight, "and," said General Miles, "there may be a fight today."

GARCIA CARRIED OUT HIS PLANS.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Authentic information received by the Associated Press in a delayed dispatch dated at Santiago, on May the 20th, and received here today, speaks of Shafter's command arriving there Monday, but said it had not yet landed. Garcia and his men were then in camp about eighteen miles west of the city. He had 1,200 men immediately with him, 500 more east of the city and about 4,000 north of the city.

They fought well at Guantanamo. The Cubans are enthusiastic over the arrival of the troops.

There will be 10,000 of them to put at the disposal of the United States forces after the city of Santiago has been stormed and the flag of the United States floats over its walls.

About a fortnight ago Garcia took an effective step to avert the possibility of further Spanish troops being massed at Santiago with those already posted in that town for its defence. A strong force of his men was sent out with instructions to their commander to prevent any aid being sent by the Spanish military commanders at Holquin, where there is an important Spanish garrison, to the Spanish garrison at Santiago

At that time the Spanish forces between Sagtiago and Guantanamo was probably about 12,000 regulars and 3,000 militia men.

NEWS OF THE COURTS.

Three More Divorce Suits Filed—McCulloch Road Established—Items of Interest.

As is usual in June, the supposed month of brides, there are a larger number of divorce suits filed than can possibly be for the public good. In the superior court, through his attorney, E. V. Emrick, William Lohmeyer has filed an application for divorce from Bertha Lohmeyer. The complaint was not on file.

Fred Meyers renews his application for divorce from Caroline Meyers. P. B. Colerick is plaintiff's attorney and has the complaint in his possession. Only a couple of weeks ago Judge Roby refused to give either party a divorce and it is surmised that Meyers has secured further evidence which he proposes to produce in court.

Elizabeth Zepp also makes application for a legal separation from Frederick Zepp.

THE M'CULLOCH ROAD.

The county commissioners today established the McCulloch road in Wayne township. The viewers reported favorably on the road several weeks ago.

NOTES.

G. H. Bodle, a prisoner from the Michigan City prison, was ordered released by United States Commissioner Logan yesterday. Bodle had served his time, but was unable to pay the fine assessed against him and as according to law by serving thirty days extra and then proving his inability to pay, he is entitled to his freedom. Commissioner Logan ordered his release.

L. J. Ninde has filed suit for injunction in the superior court against the Wabash railroad company. The suit is the result of the construction of a new drainage ditch in Lafayette township. This new ditch is calculated to change the channel of an old ditch and to do this successfully part of the old ditch must be used. This old ditch the Wabash company is filling up, and it is to stop this filling process that the injunction is prayed for. The argument will be heard July 6th.

SHAFTER has landed and it is hoped he will soon land Santiago.

THE democratic state ticket is strong, clean and popular. It has the essential qualities of a winner. And it will win.

MARK TWAIN found some words for the whole United States to repeat when he wrote: "I should like to do homage to our soldiers and sailors of today who are enlisted for another most righteous war, and utter the hope that they may make short and decisive work of it and leave Cuba free and feel when they start for home."

OUT of 155 women committed to an insane asylum in St Louis last year, 101 were classified as having been domestic servants. There must be something more than coincidence in the fact that 65 per cent. of the women lunatics in a town come from one class. And the statement does not, apparently, throw any light whatever on the domestic problem.

THE nomination of Hon Hugh Dougherty for treasurer of state by the democratic convention Wednesday, was a deserved tribute to the worth of that gentleman and the distinguished service he has rendered the democratic party. Mr Dougherty will prove one of the most popular and one of the strongest nominees the party has made in recent years. He is a clean, honorable and cultured gentleman, who both strengthens and ornaments the ticket. Mr. Dougherty is a banker in Bluffton, and as a banker two years ago he was an advocate of the financial plank of the Chicago platform. That his advocacy of free silver had a powerful influence in Indiana, there is no denying. Throughout the state, and particularly in the northern part, Mr. Dougherty's hosts of friends will feel honored in his nomination and proud to give him their most ardent support.

"PRACTICE makes perfect," is one of those copybooks precepts that are dinned into the ear and eye of the schoolboy until he is afraid that they are true. The proverb never had better illustration than that which flames from the mouths of the guns of the investing fleet at Santiago. The wildness of the Spanish marksmanship from the steady basis of the land is phenomenal. The accuracy of the gunners on the rolling ships is amazing. Our marksmen handle the big guns with the precision of small arms. The biggest part of the secret is in the word "practice." When the Spanish artillerist was lounging and smoking his cigarettes the American seaman made his gun do the smoking. The subcalibre practice of the naval stations is vindicating itself. When Commodore Dewey was at Hong Kong the shipmen of other nationalities laughed at the American sailors because Dewey's guns kept up the incessant boom of practice work. But there was no laughing in Manila bay as the same guns tore open ship sides and fortress walls and powder magazines. The gunners had learned to hit the target. This war will have its lessons for youth in its spirits and results, but also in its methods. And the old proverb "Practice makes perfect" will be written in large, round letters on Manila paper, and not in Spanish characters on the wrappers of cigarettes.

The Deadly Dynamite Gun.

The foreign experts who feared that the present war would teach them nothing new are beginning to acknowledge that these fears were groundless. Many new naval lessons have been learned and not the least of them was taught by the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius at Santiago this week. This vessel has fired just six shots at the Spanish fortifications, but those six have been sufficient to demonstrate that the pneumatic gun, concerning which there has been so much discussion and so much adverse criticism, is a success. The three guns mounted by the Vesuvius are called dynamite guns. One name will answer as well as another, but as a matter of fact the shells which are hurled by this destructive engine of war are loaded with guncotton and not with dynamite. If the more powerful explosives were substituted the deadly effectiveness of the gun would be greatly increased and the Vesuvius alone could destroy both fortifications and cities, wiping them off the face of the earth with a few shots.

Some of the naval authorities who were most reluctant to admit the efficiency of the Vesuvius and her pneumatic guns are now the first to declare that her success at Santiago means that naval warfare will be revolutionized. If this proves to be the case it will be a step nearer that universal peace which will come when ordnance is improved to the point that war will be too terrible for nations to engage in. European governments have experimented with pneumatic guns, but it remained for Yankee ingenuity to bring them to a high degree of perfection. The Monitor, an American creation, taught the world one lesson and made all the navies of the world obsolete; the Vesuvius, also a product of American brains, may teach an equally important lesson and bring about an equally sweeping revolution.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Kressler, of this city, and William H. Rupp, of Woodburn, Ind., occurred at noon yesterday in Trinity English Lutheran church. The Rev. Samuel Wagenhals officiated. Miss Louisa Trautman attended the bride. After the ceremony a reception was tendered at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rupp, on Spy Run avenue. Besides relatives living in the city, the following relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present from abroad: Mrs. Phoebe Shook, Napoleon, Ohio; Mrs. Calie Baker, Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Lizzie Arnold, Monroeville, Ind. After the reception the guests dispersed, but were at the Wabash depot early this morning to witness the departure of the bridal party. Rice was showered on the bride and groom and a nicely wrapped box, supposed to contain an old pair of shoes, was handed to the bride as she was about to board the train. Mr. and Mrs. Rupp received a large number of presents. They will reside at Woodburn, Ind., where Mr. Rupp is engaged in business.

THE TROOPS LANDED.

The sun-bronzed soldiers, in their slouch hats and service uniforms, quickly searched the buildings and beat up the thickets after landing in search of lurking foes, and marched into the unknown country beyond at nightfall, with long, swinging stride and the alert bearing of the old frontier army men, ready to fight the Spaniards Sioux fashion or in the open, wherever they could be found.

The cheers of their comrades still waiting on the transports, and of the blue jackets and the strains of "Yankee Doodle" from the bands on the transports saluted them as they disappeared from view over the hills of Baiquiri.

NO LIVES LOST.

The landing was accomplished without loss of life, the only casualty being the wounding of an insurgent on the hills by a shell from one of our warships. He will lose his arm.

The insurgent troops at Baiquiri are commanded by General Castillo and are estimated to number 1,000 men.

WOMEN TAKE PART.

Serious Riot Results From Strike in Oshkosh.

Women Armed With Clubs and Bad Eggs Assault Non-Union Men—Situation Is Serious.

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 23.—A serious riot occurred here today as a result of the woodworkers' strike. Several hundred women, armed with clubs, rocks, eggs and paper sacks of pepper, gathered at the south end of Light street bridge, near the Morgan Sash, Door and Blind factory, and waited for workmen endeavoring to enter the factory. The police were powerless to disperse the mob and not a man was allowed to enter the factory, even the proprietors being driven back by threats of violence. Non-union laborers were singled out and chased for blocks, a number of them being struck by stones and eggs.

As a consequence the plant was ordered closed down and the manufacturers are now holding a conference with the city officials.

Serious trouble is anticipated, as the strikers are feeling ugly.

Several incendiary fires in the past few days are laid to the strikers and it is feared a resort to force may result in further attempts in this direction.

Last Monday afternoon, at the home of her parents, No. 3 Brookside street, Miss Ruby Johnson celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary. After the games the little ones were ushered into the dining room where refreshments were served. Little Ruby received many beautiful presents.

KIHM AND HIS BAT

Won the Fourth Game of the Series for the Quakers.

The "Dummy" Made Four of the Six Hits and Drove In the Winning Run With a Three-Bagger.

Kihm played with the New Castles yesterday and is responsible for the Quakers third victory over the Hoosiers.

He fell in love with Mr. Brodie's curves and every time he came to the plate smashed the ball somewhere out of the reach of "Pop" Lytle's fielders, making four of the visitor's six hits, "Pop" himself lining out the other two. Kihm played in left field and did not have a chance, only two balls coming to his field. Manager Lytle will probably play the released Fort Wayne favorite on first base hereafter.

Al Fisher was very much in evidence on the Fort Wayne side, in fact he and Tommy Campbell are responsible for the brace of runs scored by the Hoosiers. In the first inning Mr. Fisher was hit by one of Three Fingered Smith's swift inshoots and in a moment stole second. Spencer and O'Meara fanned and then Tom Campbell sent Fisher across the plate with a pretty single. Hickey fouled out. The Quakers scored in this inning on Lytle's single, Fisher's error and Zinram's slow bounder to Spencer, on which Ganzell was forced at second.

Each side scored again in the fifth. Fisher walked and Spencer sacrificed him to second. O'Meara fouled out and then Tom Campbell hit a three-bagger down the right foul line, Fisher scoring again. Hickey was out from Barclay to Ganzell. Kihm made a hit in the visitor's half, went to second on Nattress' base on balls and scored on Burnett's failure to get Clarence Smith's long fly to left.

No more runs were scored until the ninth. After two visitors had been retired, Ashenbach hit a slow one down toward Spencer. Babb attempted to get it, but "booted" the ball and made a doubtful error. Kihm was next to bat and after two strikes were called hit a long three-bagger between Hickey and Belden and Ashenbach scored the winning run. Score:

NOTES.

Manager Torreyson has released Pitcher Kostal.

Pitcher Hickman, released by Boston, is being hit hard by the Eastern league teams.

Tom Campbell is hitting the ball with more regularity now than any batter in the Inter-State league.

Zinram had the first seven put outs for the Quakers. He caught a fine game and it is a mystery why Youngstown released him.

Clarence Smith is an erratic pitcher. He gave six bases on balls in yesterday's game and still struck out six of the first nine batters. His support was superb.

"Tony" Esterquest, of Youngstown, is something of a shortstop. He had twenty-three chances in the two games Tuesday at Grand Rapids and he did not miss one of them.

President Power has again issued orders to the Inter-State umpires to put off the field every player who attempts to play rowdy ball. Power significantly remarks, "then I will do the rest."

Kihm's batting average in the games played on the Fort Wayne grounds, including yesterday, was .311. While he was a great favorite it was necessary to reduce expenses in some manner and President Meyer believed Kihm could best be spared.

Belden is daily demonstrating that he is the premier outfielder of the Inter-State league. All his put outs yesterday were hard chances and two of them were apparently safe hits. He is as good a judge of a fly ball as Bob Gilks and gets over the outfield territory much faster than Toledo's manager. When he gets back his batting eye Belden will be a crack'a-jack.

Babb mustn't forget that there are others in the game. If he hadn't interfered Spencer might have been able to throw Ashenbach out at first in the ninth. There was a doubt as to this as it was a slow hit. It wasn't Charley's ball, anyhow.

Tomorrow is ladies' day at Lakeside park and there should be a large attendance of the fair sex. Nothing is more encouraging to the ball tossers than to see the grand stand crowded with pretty faces and summer dresses.

"Cy Swaim is the most awkward pitcher I ever batted againsts," says Billy Hamilton. "Every time he raises his arm to pitch I imagine he wants to shake hands with me. His awkardness and his puzzling high curve ball make him a good pitcher, and he is improving on his fielding."

There is a rustling among the managers. William Barnie, late of Brooklyn, will take charge of the Springfield team and try to carry it through the season. William Joyce is talked of to succeed Stallings at Philadelphia and Stallings will go to Detroit and run Mr. Vanderbeck's team for him. Mullane will step down and out, and in Stallings Detroit will receive its fourth manager of the season.

At Huntington yesterday afternoon the Shamrocks dropped a game to Huntington. The score was 4 to 1. Huntington secured the services of Hutton, Logansport's south paw twirler, for the game. Seven hits were made by the Shamrocks, Smith getting three of them, and Moran, McDarby, Reidy and Fitzpatrick getting one each. But five hits were made off Robbins, who had good speed and all kinds of benders. Robbins has pitched some fine ball this season, but his work yesterday was exceptionally fine.

The theatre is attracting a large crowd this week, the bill is an excellent one. The monologue of John D. Gilbert the comedian, is deserving of mention.

The regular meeting of the Theosophical society will be held this evening at Vordermark hall, No. 32 Calhoun street. Dr. A. P. Buchman will lecture on "Spiritual Progression." The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock. All persons interested are invited to come.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Drier & Bro.'s drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Evening Papers the Best Mediums.

(The Business Manager.)

Of daily newspapers there are two distinct classes:

1. The kind that's looked at, and
2. The kind that's read.

The first is printed about three hours before sunrise and left lying about where people are apt to see it when they wake up. And they do get a hurried glimpse of it before settling down to the day's work, but not enough to read and heed the ads in it. The other kind collects the day's news, prints it in the afternoon, and places a copy in almost every home for careful, thoughtful, evening reading. Everybody reads the evening papers, ads and all. The great buying public never really and studiously scans a morning paper, except on Sunday. "Every evening and Sunday" is the most economical and effective advertising anybody can do in a city where daily papers are published. No getting around this proposition. It is positively proven every week in the year in hundreds of American cities.

The evening daily, with few exceptions, is a newspaper with contents covering the world of news, art and science, with everything upon the same plate and everything seasoned to the appetite of the multitude.

Nathaniel Fitch About Eighty-Three Years Old.

One of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens is Nathaniel H Fitch, of 75 Douglass avenue, who has been a resident of Allen county for over a third of a century. He is a native of Massachusetts, where when a boy he learned the shoemaker's trade and for many years followed that business. In 1854 he was partially crippled by an attack of rheumatism and was compelled to abandon the awl and last and turn his attention to other vocations. He was offered and accepted the position of express messenger on the Hopkinton and Boston road. Five years later the company gave him charge of one of its express wagons in his native city and he held that position until 1865. Then he resigned and came west, settling in Maples as the passenger and freight agent of the Pennsylvania company.

Mr. Fitch held that office eighteen years, at the same time conducting with his nephew an extensive business in the manufacture of staves. One night, during the busy season, when the yards were well stocked, the factory and its surrounding piles of staves were destroyed by fire, entailing a loss upon the owners of over $25,000, as they were not insured. The works were rebuilt, but owing to a scarcity of rough material and possibly lack of sufficient funds, the firm was not able to regain the business they enjoyed before the fire and after three or four years of indifferent success, they abandoned it entirely. Mr. Fitch then came to Fort Wayne and was given a position in the Pennsylvania freight house, where he has been employed ever since.

Mr. Fitch will be eighty-three years old in July. Notwithstanding his age he is a stout and healthy man, vigorous in mind and body. He says he belongs to a family noted for the longevity of its members. He has two brothers and a sister living back in Massachusetts, who are aged respectively ninety-three, eighty-five and seventy-eight and who are just as strong and healthy apparently as the subject of this sketch. Mr. Fitch can truthfully say what very few men of his age can, viz.: That during his life time he never tasted intoxicating liquors, took a chew of tobacco nor smoked a cigar or pipe. He has always been regular in his hours for retiring at night and getting up in the morning. It is probably to these temperate habits that his remarkable strength and health are now due.

Mr. Fitch's family consists of a wife, three sons and a daughter. One of the boys resides at Mattoon, Ill., one at Jackson, Mich., and the other in this city. The daughter lives in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mr. Fitch can talk interestingly of pioneer railroading. He has distinct recollections of the first railway ever built in America and rode on the Boston and Worchester road in 1830. That line was one of the three first roads in this country. The cars then in use were constructed after the manner of the stage coach of those days, having doors at the side and a seating capacity of eighteen or twenty. The coaches exhibited at the world's fair and alleged to be the first ones ever in use on an American railway were of a later date than the coach Mr. Fitch first beheld. He says they were introduced about the year 1835. The track of the Boston and Worchester was constructed of wooden rails, with strips of iron nailed upon them.

The active pall bearers at the funeral of the late Mrs. C. D. Law were chosen from the ranks of Pennsylvania officials and were C. E. Walton, F. E Sawyer, E. G. Ericson, W. H Tigar, Robert Learmouth and A. H. Polhamus.

S. F. Bowser & Co. are quietly preparing to raise a flag in the near future. They are not saying much about it now, but THE SENTINEL learns from a reliable source that it will eclipse any of the flags so far unfurled in the city. The Bowsers never do anything by halves.

Employes in the operating department of the Lake Shore road will present their late general manager, W. H. Caniff, an appropriate gift. When he was on the Lake Shore road this could not be done, as it was against the rules of the company for employes to give officers presents, but as president of the Nickel Plate Mr. Caniff can use his pleasure in the matter.

Indianapolis Journal: "The Nickel Plate has resumed discharging employes who visit saloons. Railroad employes must now do one of two things—steer clear of saloons or lose their jobs." This item does not correctly state the situation in Fort Wayne, inasmuch as there have been no recent dismissals here. There are no men employed on the Nickel Plate at this point who are addicted to intoxicating drinks.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 23.—It was after 9 o'clock last night before the work of the democratic state convention was completed by the nomination of a ticket.

After Samuel M. Ralston had been nominated by acclamation for secretary of state the contest began with balloting for a candidate for state auditor.

With the presentation of the names of five candidates for auditor of state it became apparent that the large counties of Marion, Vanderburg and Vigo had entered into a combination to nominate Fanning for auditor, Stockfleth for treasurer and McNutt for attorney general, and the friends of other candidates took alarm and started out to beat the combination. When the fifth ballot was ordered the friends of the candidates for other positions combined on John W. Minor and he was nominated by a vote of 807 to 721 for Fanning.

Marion and Vigo counties tried to carry out their agreement with Vanderburg when candidates for treasurer were placed in nomination and voted for Stockfleth, but Minor's friend's rolled to the support of Hugh Dougherty, of Wells, and he was nominated on the second ballot. W. H. O'Neil withdrew from the race for attorner general before the ballot was ordered, and John G McNutt, of Vigo, was nominated by acclamation.

The third defeat of the combination of the big counties came when the ballot was taken for clerk of the supreme court. Joseph L. Reilly, of Jennings, was the combination candidate, but was defeated by Henry Warrum, of Marion, who is the only representative of the German element on the ticket and who owes his nomination in part to that fact.

W. S. Sinclair, of Starke county, was nominated for superintendent of public instruction on the second ballot over James W. Nourse, of Spencer.

Out of a field of five candidates the convention nominated James S. Guthrie, of Brown county, for the office of state statistician, and Edward Barrett, of Hendricks, was selected as the party candidate for state geologist over two competitors.

For supreme court judge Judge Hackney and Hugh McMullen were put in nomination from the second judicial district, and the roll call when footed up showed that Hackney had received 1,269 votes to 247 for McMullen.

Judge James McCabe, of Warren county, and Judge Timothy E Howard, of St. Joseph, were nominated by acclamation for the third and fifth districts respectively.

For judges of the appellate court Edwin Taylor, of Vanburg; C. J. Kollmeyer, of Bartholomew; Edgar A. Brown, of Marion; W. S. Divins, of Madison, and John Kapelka, of Lake, were nominated.

The convention then adjourned.

A Cure for Heartburn.

The burning sensation in the stomach, the pains and suffering which I experienced for five long years, brought on by continued constipation and biliousness, are almost indescribable. I tried every known remedy without effect. Finally I tried Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets, following the directions carefully. After taking a few doses I began to improve. I have not used more than three boxes and feel as well as I ever felt. My restoration to perfect health I attribute solely to the use of Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets, and I only wish I could persuade others to do so as I did and be cured—Logan M. Proprietors of the Lincoln Tea Company Arrested--Dan Gorman Must Meet a Nasty Charge.

Inspector Leatherman created a sensation this afternoon by swearing out affidavits against A L. Meeks, Robt. B Davis and George W. Lahr, proprietors of the Lincoln Tea company, charging them with wrongfully using the mails. The affidavits allege that the company has been sending out pictures and pamphlets of an indecent character

Deputy United States Marshal Rose arrested the young men this afternoon and they were taken before United States Commissioner Logan. Samuel Morris was employed to defend them. A nominal bond will be fixed and the gentlemen will then be released until arrangements can be made for a hearing in the near futuro. The young men are all well known and their friends will be slow to believe that they have been guilty of any violation of the law.

GORMAN UNDER ARREST.

Inspector Leatherman also swore to an affidavit yesterday charging Daniel Gorman with violating the United States postal laws in using the mails to secure property by false representations. It is claimed that he was in the fake produce business under the name of the Indiana Produce company and would secure credit to buy fish by giving the Indiana Produce Co. as reference. It is claimed he secured considerable produce in this manner. Gorman was taken before United States Commissioner Logan this morning and bail was fixed at $200, which he was unable to furnish.

MORE RECRUITS.

W. J. Vesey today received a telegram from A. M. Dickson, of Indianapolis, requesting him to secure twenty or twenty-five artisans, masons, carpenters and blacksmiths for enlistment in the engineer corps, which is now being organized in Indiana by Captain Dickson. The pay is from $15.60 to $40 a month and the recruits may be secured immediately.

Mr. Vesey appointed A. J. You to secure the men and Mr. You has secured quarters in the city clerk's office where artesans desiring to join the engineering corps can come and be examined. The telegram asks that these men be sent immediately and there will be no delay.

Adjutant H. K. Scott writes that he will not open a recruiting office in Fort Wayne until he has secured his quota of men from Auburn and Angola. This means that he will not be here until some time next week. The recruiting office will be in the Drs. Barnett's office on West Wayne street and Dr. Schruder will be the examining physician.

"Old Glory" in Bloomingdale.

A pretty and patriotic scene was witnessed at the Trinity Lutheran school yesterday evening at 6:30, the occasion being the raising of a beautiful flag on the school building. A large number of people had assembled on the school grounds and in the streets to join in the cheers for the star spangled banner. The following program was carried out in a highly creditable manner: "Flag drill," by the pupils of the school; raising the flag, by August Fahlsing and Hy. Brinkroger; song, "Columbia," by the school; recitation, "Salute Old Glory," by Otto Lenz; address, by Rev. J. Bohn; recitation, "Flag of the Heroes," by Hulda Keller; song, "America," by the entire school.

Both teachers and pupils are entitled to much credit in arranging and carrying out the program. They maintain that a good Lutheran is always a good patriot.

A ROYAL WELCOME

Given the New Recruits by the Boys at Chickamauga.

CHICKAMAUGA PARK, GA.
Monday, June 13, '98.

TO THE SENTINEL:

The last couple of days have been very pleasant ones for the Twenty-eight Indiana battery boys on account of the arrival of a number of new men from home, some of whom are close friends and companions of some of the boys who came down here with the battery on the first call. Saturday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock the first squad of new men, who left Fort Wayne on Friday at 12:35, came into camp in charge of Pharo C Ligget. Their arrival at our quarters was the cause of a great excitement. They had been expected for several days and as soon as they marched into sight all men off duty rushed up and greeted them royally They were lined up in front of the officers' tents and reported and were then dismissed into the care of the boys, and to say they were well taken care of would be putting it rather mildly. It is certain they will never forget their first day in camp.

This first squad had no difficulty in finding our camp as they were accompanied by Corporal Geo. Depner, who went home with Captain Ranke to attend to some private business, but the second squad was not so fortunate.

The squad of recruits, who left Fort Wayne Saturday morning at 7:10 arrived at Lytle Station, two miles from our camp, at 10:30 yesterday morning, but as they were not expected until today no one was at the depot to meet them and so they had to start out for themselves and find our camp. After strolling all over Chickamauga Park they came into our quarters at about 1:30 and, of course, were also given a hearty welcome.

Today the new men were "broken in." First Sergeant Fred Meyer had been saving some special work for them, and if the friends at home could have stepped into camp they would have seen some men digging ditches, shoveling dirt, raking up rubbish, riding mules to water, etc, who were not exactly cut out for that kind of work.

About 11 o'clock this morning Lieut. Frank Alderman received a telegram from Captain Ranke, ordering him to hold an election for a junior second lieutenant—a new office made necessary in a six-gun battery. The assembly call was sounded at once and in a few minutes the entire company was in line, for what they did not know, but Lieutenant Alderman announced his orders and, while the boys were somewhat taken by surprise, they were fully equal to the occasion. Immediately the nominations brought out First Sergeant Fred J. Meyer, Sergeant Clyde Snowberger and Corporal C. C Mungen as candidates. Sergeant Snowberger declined to be a candidate and the nominations closed with Sergeant Meyer and Corporal Mungen as the only candidates. The result of the first ballot showed Meyer elected. Lieutenant Alderman then appointed Sergeant Snowberger to succeed Meyer. It is now Junior Second Lieutenant Fred J. Meyer and First Sergt. Clyde Snowberger. After the announcement of the result of the election and the new appointment the boys circled around the promoted officers and picking them up, carried them on their shoulders around the camp amid rousing cheers. Both men are popular with the boys and are well deserving of the advance. Sergeant Snowberger assumed his new duties today, but Lieutenant Meyers will not for a few days until his commission arrives. The promotion of Sergeant Snowberger and the returning home of Sergeant Fred Jonne will cause two vacancies among the sergeants and boys are now wondering who the fortunate ones will be to receive the appointments

Yesterday afternoon there was an open air meeting of the Odd Fellows in camp. Several prominent speakers from different states were present and delivered short and interesting addresses. The Fort Wayne Battery was represented by Corporal John Vordermark and Private Paul Bauman. A committee of one man from each regiment in camp was appointed to canvass his regiment and learn how many I. O. O. F. men they had Another meeting is announced for next Sunday afternoon at which the subject of organizing a general army lodge will be taken up

The Atlanta, Ga battery came into camp last Saturday, fully equipped with men and horses, but no guns yet This makes ten batteries of artillery now in camp here, but none of them are yet fully equipped with guns and ready for the field For this reason it is not expected that any orders to move the artillery will be received soon

Corporal Andy Christen received a box of smoked meats last Saturday from Fred Helling, jr., and at the same time Private Billy Brown and received a large box of good things to eat from home. Both the men were so delighted that they locked themselves up in their tent and were lost to the world for a couple of hours

The second section, better known among the boys here as the Irish section, under command of Sergeant John Castor, is now comfortably located in a new home. This section lost their tent a week ago by fire, caused, the boys say, by Corporal "Red" Mungen going into the tent with his hat off

Jack VanRoy has been assigned to a place in the United States signal corps and will assume his new duties tomorrow This will take him away from the battery, and, while the boys hate to have him leave, they are glad of the advance he has made

While THE SENTINEL representative was passing the gang in the ditch this afternoon Dr Evans, who was manipulating a pick, stopped work long enough to say that if he was to be considered as third cousin to "Fighting Bob" Evans he thought he ought to be assigned to something light At this juncture Charley Eckart, who when at home is a disciple of Blackstone, came up out of the ditch and leaning on his shovel said: "Tell Jim Robinson, Sam Morris and Harry Colerick that I delivered their best regards to the boys, as requested, and they were thankfully received, and please send my respects to the Allen County Bar association."

Joe O'Connell, one of the ditch detail, says he thought he was joining the army when he left home, but that his first day's work suggests working on a railroad section.

George Shaefer says that if he never gets any nearer Cuba than he is now he will feel as if he is well repaid for his trouble, for he has seen something he could not see in Fort Wayne

Sunday noon privates Frank Kinsey and Del Bowser, who are on the cooking detail, tried to hit a large pan of hot water off the stove and accidently spilled the water into the fire, putting it all out Kinsey was seen hopping around on one foot asking Bowser what was the matter, and after taking an inventory it was found that neither one was hurt but only badly scared.

Hon. Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, addressed a large crowd of soldiers at the Wisconsin Y. M. C. A. tent last evening and a large number of our men were in attendance.

TWO YOUNG THIEVES

Enter a John Street Saloon and Stole Cigars, Whisky and Tobacco.

This morning Edward Nowek, who conducts a saloon at No. 263 John street, reported to Officer Spillner that during the night some one had entered his place and stole three boxes of cigars, some quart bottles of whisky and some tobacco. The officer remembered that last night he and Officer Collins met Frank Brosowski and Herman R. Kuhl returning from a dance and they acted rather peculiarly. The officer went to the boys' homes and questioned them and finally they admitted having stolen the stuff most of which was found hidden away in young Kuhl's home on Green street. The lads are about eighteen years old and had secured a key which fit the lock in the saloon door making entrance to the place rather easy. They are locked up pending a hearing and the stolen goods is on exhibition at the police station.

A vivacious woman's fan can frequently speak in more eloquent language than any known to the tongue of man It can invite or repel, sigh or smile, be meek or haughty, tear a passion to tatters or humbly seek forgiveness.

It can also tell the story of health A woman who suffers from weakness and disease in a womanly way sits in sorrow and dejection while both sisters enjoy themselves She may be naturally beautiful, naturally attractive, naturally interesting and animated in society, but the demon of ill health is showing at the very vitals of her womanly nature, and she soon becomes a withered old flower in comparison with her brighter and more healthy sisters. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wonderful medicine for women who suffer in this way It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood It tones and builds up the shattered nerves It restores the glow of health to the pale cheek It gives springiness and buoyancy to the carriage It makes the eyes sparkle with returning vivacity. It imparts animation to the men and gestures. The form that long lay listless and idle in the lap of repose is made again speaks the eloquent language of a healthy, happy woman. Thousands of women have testified to the marvelous merits of this wonderful medicine

"For several years I suffered with prolapsus of the uterus," writes Miss A Lee Schuster, of Box 1, Rodney Jefferson Co. Miss. "Our family physician treated me for kidney trouble and everything else but the right thing. I grew worse and worse. My body was emaciated, limbs and feet cold, mind cold, stomach weak, with great palpitation of the heart. I would suffer with nausea all night. I began taking your Favorite Prescription, and I began to improve right away. I have taken three bottles and now I am very nearly well and am very happy and thankful to you."

A pretty wedding occurred at the English Lutheran church of the Redeemer at 6 o'clock last evening when Miss Maud Base and Martin J. Stock were united in marriage by Rev. C F. W. Meyer, pastor of the church Miss Markley, of Topeka, Kan., Miss Minnie Felts, of Benton Harbor, Mich., and F. C. Tolan and Mr. Stock, a brother of the groom, were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Stock held a reception from 7 to 9 o'clock at their home which the groom had fitted for occupancy, at the corner of Clinton and Woodland avenue. At a later hour the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip. The bride is a sister of G. F. Felts, of this city, and the groom, a young architect of the city, and a son of the Rev. Stock, of Adams township.

UNABLE TO SEE FROM ECZEMA

I suffered with Eczema of the worst kind. My face and shoulders were one mass of loathsome itch. No one could recognize me for months, was not able to accept of my case for quite a while, and was unable to sleep for weeks, as scratching of the sores only made them more intolerable. My face and neck were swollen and I made an ugly picture. Had three doctors at different times, and no two agreed as to what ailed me or my skin, scaling, and blotches. I used three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, three cakes of Cuticura Soap, and my friends and one of the doctors are surprised, and admit, "Wherever you go" I tell them quickly, Cuticura Remedies." THE TROOPS LANDED.

General Shafter's Army of Invasion Now on Cuban Soil.

NOT A LIFE LOST IN MAKING THE SHORE.

NEW YORK, June 23.—A special dated at Playa Del Este, Cuba, today, says that at 1 o'clock this morning the last of General Shafter's army of invasion had landed at Baiquiri.

THE LANDING OF THE ARMY OF INVASION.

(Copyright 1898, by the Associated Press.)

ON BOARD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH BOAT WANDA, Baiquiri Harbor, Cuba, Wednesday, June 22, 6 p. m.—Via Kingston, Jamaica, Thursday, June 23.—5:10 a. m.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon, 6,000 trained American soldiers are encamped in the hills in and around Baiquiri, and 10,000 more rest on their arms on board transports off shore, ready to join those who have debarked as soon as the available launches and small boats can carry them ashore.

Time and sea and weather were propitious for the army of invasion. The army and the navy co-operated splendidly, and as the big war ships closed in on the shore to pave the way for the approach of the transports and then went back again, three cheers for the navy went up from 10,000 throats on the troop ships and three cheers for the army rose from ship after ship as the troop ships moved in to take their share in the hazardous game.

THE CUBANS BORE THEIR SHARE.

It was war, and it was magnificent. The Cuban insurgents, too, bore their share in the enterprise honorably and well. Five thousand of them, in mountain fastnesses and dark thickets of ravines, lay all last night on their guns watching every road and mountain path leading from Santiago de Cuba to Guantanamo. A thousand of them were within sight of Baiquiri, making the approach of the Spaniards under cover of the darkness an impossibility.

At 4 o'clock this morning, as the Associated Press dispatch boat approached Baiquiri, the entire island of Cuba seemed wrapped in soft mist like that of the dog days in northern latitude. Dull, leaden clouds lay on the eastern horizon, and the color was reflected in the gray waters of the ocean, which gently undulated in the lazy breeze.

Distant objects loomed dimly, but it was seen that many of the troop ships that had been lying several miles in the offing had drawn in toward shore, while three or four warships lay monstrously near the harbor approach. All around the transports, steam launches and small boats were bobbing about like corks, the first indication of the true object of the undertaking ahead.

AN INSPIRING SCENE.

An hour later the sun was rising in the eastern sky, touching the mountain tops with patches of light green and revealing the great semi-circle of troopships, some close to the coast line, others a mile distant, with their decks crowded with eager, expectant men, impatient to begin the great movement of destiny, to make a new chapter in the history of America, the first invasion by our army of a foreign country in half a century.

As the dispatch boat of the Associated Press ran closer in, near where the New Orleans was lying with her great Armstrong guns trained on Baiquiri, tongues of lurid flame and black smoke were seen rising from the town, the inevitable consequence of war and a sure sign that the Spaniards had gone, leaving ruin behind them.

The captain of the New Orleans shouted the news to the dispatch boat, adding:

"You had better keep off a little. You are in range. They have a rifle on the hill on the eastern side of Baiquiri."

There is a steep, rocky hill, known as Punta Baiquiri, rising almost perpendicularly at the place indicated. It is a regular Gibraltar in possibilities of defense. From the staff at its summit the Spanish flag was defiantly floating at sunset last night, but it was gone this morning and with it the small Spanish guard which had maintained the signal station.

SPANIARDS FIRED THE TOWN.

Between nightfall and dawn the Spaniards had taken the alarm and fled from the place, firing the town as they left. The flames were watched with interest from the ships. Two sharp explosions were heard.

At first they were thought to be the report of guns from Spanish masked batteries, but they proved to be the explosion of ammunition in the burning building. Three hours waiting made the men on the transports impatient to get ashore and in action, and every move of the warships was closely watched by the soldiers.

A little before 9 o'clock the bombardment of the batteries of Juragua was begun by the ships of Rear Admiral Sampson's fleet. This was evidently a feint to cover the real point of attack, Juragua being about half way between Baiquiri and Santiago de Cuba.

The bombardment lasted about twenty minutes. The same then quickly shifted back again to the great semi-circle of the transport fleet before Baiquiri.

At 9:40 o'clock the New Orleans opened fire with a gun that sent a shell rumbling and crashing against the hillside. The Detroit, Wasp, Machias and Suwanee followed suit and soon the hillsides and the valleys seemed to be ablaze as shot followed shot in swift succession amid the wild and excited cheering of the soldiers on the transports.

In five minutes the sea was alive with flotillas of small boats, headed by launches, speeding for Baiquiri dock. Some of the boats were manned by crews of sailors, while others were rowed by the soldiers themselves.

Each boat contained sixteen men, everyone in fighting trim and carrying three days' rations, a shelter tent, a gun and 500 cartridges ready to take the field on touching the shore should they be called upon to do so.

FIRE NOT RETURNED.

The firing of the warships proved to be a needless precaution, as their shots were not returned and no Spaniards were visible.

Two correspondents of the Associated Press, in a small boat, joined the first flotilla that went ashore and witnessed the inspiring sight of the landing.

General Shafter, on board the Seguranca, closely watched the landing of the troops. Brigadier General Lawton, who had been detailed to command the landing party, led the way in a launch, accompanied by his staff, and directed the formation of the line of operation.

A detachment of eighty regular infantry soldiers was the first to land, followed by General Shafter's old regiment, the First Infantry. Then came the Twenty-fifth Infantry, the Twenty-second Infantry, the Tenth Infantry, the Seventh and Twelfth Infantry, the Second Massachusetts regiment and a detachment of the Ninth cavalry.

RIVALRY TO BE FIRST TO LAND.

The boats rushed forward simultaneously from every quarter in good natured rivalry to be the first, and their occupants scrambled over one another to leap ashore

As the boats bossed about in the surf breaking against the pier, getting ashore was no easy matter, and the soldiers had to throw their rifles on the dock before they could climb up themselves and some bad tumbles resulted, but nobody was hurt.

As the out of the pier the companies and regiments quickly lined up and were marched away.

General Lawton threw a strong detachment, for the night, about six miles west, on the road to Santiago, and another detachment was posted to the north of the town, among the hills. The regular troops were quartered in the town, some of them being housed in the buildings of the iron company.

Others of the troops were quartered in deserted houses, while others still preferred the shelter of their tents in the adjoining fields.

The morning's fire, it was soon, destroyed the round house, the repair shops and several small dwellings.

THE TOWN DESERTED.

The town was deserted when the troops landed, but women and

Aguinaldo Has Made a Compact With Dewey.

Pledges That No Massacre Shall Take Place.

The Insurgent Leader is Waiting the Arrival of American Troops Before Taking the City.

LONDON, June 23.—The Manila railroad company, having offices in this city, has received a cable message saying that though the Philippine insurgents have captured all but the inner city of Manila, they are respecting property and are refraining from looting.

A London agent of the insurgents claims to have information that General Aguinaldo has made a compact with Rear Admiral Dewey not to attack the walled city until the American troops arrive, when the Americans and the insurgents will co-operate.

REST IN PEACE.

Remains of Father Brammer Consigned to the Grave.

Thousands of People Pay Loving Tribute to the Departed Priest—Very Rev. M. E. Campion Preached the Sermon.

Mid tears and flowers and surrounded by thousands of sorrowing friends and parishioners, the remains of the late beloved Father Brammer were today consigned to their last resting place, underneath the sanctuary to which he had so devotedly served the Lord for more than thirty years.

The Cathedral was filled to overflowing with Fort Wayne people, Catholics and Protestants, who came to pay their last respects to a devoted Christian and a progressive citizen.

The Cathedral was heavily draped in mourning, interspersed here and there with festoons of evergreens. The drapery was not confined to the auditorium, but the outside of the edifice was strung with bolts of mourning. The casket in which lay the dead priest was set at the front of the center aisle at the foot of the altar, the head slightly raised, so that in every part of the Cathedral the familiar countenance could be easily seen. The countenance presented the appearance of peaceful sleep and rest.

The funeral services were held at 9 o'clock. First came the office of the dead, followed by solemn pontifical high mass, with the following officers:

Celebrant—The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Rademacher.

Assistant—Rev. Henry Boeckelman, Elkhart.

Deacon of Honor—The Rev. P. F. Rooke, Lafayette; the Rev. M. J. Bryne, of Whiting.

Master of Ceremonies—The Rev. C. B. Guendling, the Rev. J. Dondurand, the Rev. W. J Quinlan, of Marion, and the Rev. J. F. Durham.

The sermon was preached by the Very Rev. M. E. Campion, of Logansport, a dear and close friend of the deceased vicar general. He paid a loving tribute to the nobility of character, the Christian fortitude and the universal kindness of the devoted priest. During his discourse hundreds of people shed tears of regret as they realized that too true were the words spoken of him who was about to be consigned to the grave.

After the sermon the remains were carried to the north side of the church, and through the entrance to the vault. There, under the altar at which he so often offered up prayers for others, the body of Father Brammer was laid to rest beside his predecessor, Monsignor Bonoit and Bishops Louis and Dwenger.

The attendance of priests at the funeral was very large, almost every reverend of the diocese being present, notwithstanding that communion services were being held in many places. It is believed at least 100 priests were in attendance at the obsequies.

DELEGATES RETURN.

Successful State Meeting of the Modern Woodmen—May Meet Here Next Summer.

M. S. Willson, H. A. Uhlanhake, Frank Howenstine and George B. Frooby returned this morning from Lafayette, where they had been in attendance upon the state convention of Modern Woodmen. The gentlemen report having had a most enjoyable time and a very successful convention. Mr. Frooby was elected a member of the board of directors. The delegates from Fort Wayne boomed Fort Wayne for the next state convention and believe that at the log rolling, which is held in Rushville next September, it will be decided to come here next year.

Cervera's Guns are Being Mounted on Shore at Santiago.

MILITARY SITUATION IN EASTERN CUBA.

(Copyrighted 1898, by the Associated Press.)

IN GENERAL GARCIA'S CAMP, Aureo Deras, Santiago de Cuba, June 22, per the Associated Press Dispatch Boat Wanda, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 23.—7. a. m.—A Cuban who left the city of Santiago on Monday night arrived at General Garcia's camp on Tuesday morning with accurate maps of the harbor and of the earthworks surrounding it. The ships of Admiral Cervera have moved from the positions they were in three days ago, and now lie in almost a circle, surrounding a small island and lighthouse about half way up the fourmile harbor.

The armored cruiser Cristobal Colon, which is uninjured, lies to the west, commanding with her port battery the narrow neck of the harbor, while the Vizcaya, also uninjured, lies to the east, her starboard battery looking down on the same neck.

Both of the Spanish torpedo boat destroyers are temporarily disabled, one having been struck by fragments of the shells that sunk the Reina Mercedes and the other having her boiler tubes and engines in course of repairs.

The most important statement made was in substance that the torpedo boats have not since their arrival here made any attempt to leave, being unable to do so. The ships have only half their supplies of coal, although some coal arrived by overland route two week ago.

The shell that sunk the Reina Mercedes was fired by the Massachusetts.

Beyond this loss and the quite large loss of life incident to it, there was little or no damage done. The earthworks were disturbed and one smooth bore gun was dismounted on the west battery.

Seven new guns are being put up facing the sea, three of which, on the west are ship guns of the six inch rapid-fire variety and automatic guns of all descriptions, it appears, are being dismounted from the ships and mounted on the earthworks surrounding the city.

A new line of trenches has been dug about a mile and a half from the city. The Spanish soldiers known as the regular troops are on half rations and no rations or supplies are furnished to the local Spanish forces, numbering about 3,000.

They are compelled to forage for themselves.

The spirit of discontent, it also seems, is very widespread among the Spanish troops and the uprising in Santiago de Cuba is feared.

There is an absolute lack of drugs in Santiago and, finally, the crews of the Spanish warships are on half rations.

MILITARY SITUATION IN EASTERN CUBA.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The military situation at Santiago de Cuba, so far as the war and navy departments know, remains precisely as it was at sundown yesterday. Troops are being landed from General Shafter's corps, and this landing has not yet been completed.

Neither Shafter nor Sampson have reported since the two cablegrams received last night. It is gathered from these, taken in connection with the press reports, that only one landing in military sense has been made, but naturally with so large a number of transports to be discharged, the troops have been scattered up and down the beach for several miles.

The cable station is within seven miles of the point where the debarkation is going on. The officials here say that this work cannot be completed for several days, although of course the troops without their supplies may be all ashore before that time.

One fact appears, namely: that General Shafter is arranging himself the details of landing, advised by Sampson and perhaps Garcia, and that the military authorities have allowed him to exercise his discretion in this, for they do not know whether he will make more than one landing or just here that landing is.

One beneficial effect from the landing at Baiquiri will be to distract the attention of the Spanish from the harbor of Guantanamo. The mines having been probably all removed, and the forts that commanded the lower harbor having been silenced, with the disappearance of the Spaniards from the country surrounding the bay the navy will be in full possession of what it has long wished for—an absolutely safe and land-locked harbor in which all of Sampson's fleet and the transports as well can find refuge from any West Indian cyclones.

Gen. Greely received a dispatch today from Lieutenant Colonel Allen, of the signal service, in charge of the cable station established at Playa de Este, Cuba. It did not relate to military operations, but from the fact that no reference was made to important developments, it was inferred that the situation has not changed materially since last night when the landing of troops was in progress. Colonel Allen will make Playa de Este the cable base, but in addition to this a military cable line will be stretched from that point westward along the coast to the headquarters of General Shafter.

By this shore loop General Shafter will be brought into direct cable communication with the war department.

Colonel Allen is now hurrying forward preparations in this direction. He had all the material necessary for the shore loop, with instruments and operators ready to work the line as soon as the army had quarters fixed.

It is not quite clear thus far at what point General Shafter and his main body of troops have established their base. The official dispatches to the secretary of war and secretary of the navy spoke of landing at Baiquiri, and a demonstration at Cabanas.

Other official messages stated that the landing was going on simultaneously at two points, making an assault on Santiago in the front and rear. The press dispatches also speak of Juraga as a probable point of landing. At whatever one of these points General Shafter takes up his base the military telegraph lines will connect them with Playa del Esto and thence to the war department. Using strictly a military line, the cable from headquarters to Playa del Esto will not be open for commercial business, although the authorities will be disposed to give the press such facilities as are possible under the circumstances.

Most of the unofficial messages, however, will have to be handled from Playa del Esto in order to avoid glutting the military loop.

Army officers were intently scanning the map of the country around Santiago today with a view of locating the troops and firing their formation on the eve of the advance. Baiquiri is about fifteen miles due east from the mouth of Santiago harbor. A small river runs inland at that point, affording additional facilities for landing. The map shows a road direct from Baiquiri to the entrance of Santiago harbor, and thence along the harbor to the city of Santiago.

Beside this road, a railroad starts a few miles west of Baiquiri, circling along the coast up to the mouth of Santiago harbor.

Juraqua, the other point mentioned in the dispatches, is midway between Baiquiri and Santiago harbor. It also has a small stream, giving additional facilities for landing, and the railroad appears to take its start along the coast from that point. Back of this railroad and highway the interior shows mountainous formations which would make the progress of an army difficult.

It seems evident from an examination of the military map that General Shafter's troops at Baiquiri or Juraqua will move westward along the highway, perhaps utilizing the railroad and thus approaching Santiago from the southeast. Distinct from this landing, which is east of Santiago harbor, it seems evident that at least a part of General Shafter's forces will land west of the harbor, thus allowing an attack on Santiago from the northwest.

Miss Bessie Jefferson, formerly of the law offices of Lowry, Spencer & Lowry and George F. Foltz, has accepted a position with the Fort Wayne Electric corporation. She leaves the situation she has long held with high recommendations from her past employers. Miss Jefferson's duties in her new position began this afternoon.

Captain W. P. Ranke and Henry Niemeyer left at 12:45 today for Chickamauga, the captain having finished his labors and closed up the recruiting quarters last evening. Mr. Niemeyer has enlisted in the battery and will be mustered in with the members of the two squads which went down last week.

The young people of the city are invited to meet at the Y. W. C. A. on Berry street to organize a local temperance meeting June 25, at 2 p. m. Mrs. G. S. Bilderour, superintendent, assisted by Miss Anna Phibley and Miss Jessie Brake, will conduct the meeting.

FIFTY THOUSAND MEN

A Mighty Army Now in Camp at Chickamauga.

Recruits Arriving Daily by Hundreds.

Soldiers are Uniformed and Being Armed.

General Brooke's Army Will be the Best Equipped Set to Take the Field Against Spain.

CHATTANOOGA, National Military Park, Tenn., June 23.—No orders of any kind affecting the present status of General Brooke's army have been received and the work of preparing the men for the field is going forward rapidly and satisfactory. There are now at the park nearly 47,000 men and these are being added to daily from 500 to 700 recruits. Yesterday and last night the largest number yet to arrive in one day came in, there being about 1,500 arrivals in the city.

Including the payment to the Twelfth New York this week, it is estimated that $320,000 has been paid to volunteers at Chickamauga since the army was mobilized here.

The regular government pay day for many of the regiments is approaching, and some of the regiments have been mustered in for more than thirty days and have not yet been paid. Work on the pay rolls will begin in a few days.

Everything is now moving smoothly at the park. The men are all contented, and are working with a good will. The quartermaster's department has been thoroughly systematized, so that there is no longer the slightest difficulty for the men to get plenty of good, wholesome food. The regiments are now equipped with new uniforms and are being armed as rapidly as the guns can be turned out of the arsenal.

Other needed small equipments are being added daily, and it is now believed that this army would be the best equipped of any to go into the field.

RUSSIA FRIENDLY.

New Ambassador Brings Good Will of the Czar.

Count De Cassini Received at the White House Today by President McKinley.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 23.—Russia's first ambassador to the United States, Count De Cassini, was formally presented to the president at 11 o'clock today by the secretary of state.

The ambassador, who was accompanied by his secretary and other attaches, was received in the blue parlor of the executive mansion, where he delivered to the president his letter accrediting him to this government.

All were in complete court costume. In the course of a brief address, the ambassador spoke of the friendly relations that had always existed between the Russian empire and the United States and expressed the hope that these cordial relations would continue for many years to come.

The ambassador laid special emphasis upon this part of his address. Altogether the speech was exceedingly friendly and cordial in tone, and did not contain a sentence not in entire accord with a feeling of perfect good will and friendship.

The president's reply was in the same amicable vein.

A BIG BATTLE IS ON.

MILES HINTS THAT A BATTLE IS WAGING.

MADRID, June 23.—4 p. m.—News of serious fighting near Santiago de Cuba has been received here. Admiral Cervera cables that the situation is critical and the governor of Santiago admits that the Spaniards have been obliged to retire, but a Spanish victory is claimed.

SPANISH CLAIM TO HAVE REPULSED ATTACK.

MADRID, June 23.—4 p. m.—The minister for war, General Correa, it is announced, has received an official dispatch from Santiago de Cuba, announcing that "the Americans' first attack on Puenta Berraco has been repulsed after a hard fought and bloody engagement."

Puenta Berraco is situated a short distance from Baiquiri, where the United States troops landed yesterday. It is nearer the coast and therefore more completely under the guns of the American fleet from which it can be judged that it is highly improbable that the Americans have been repulsed as announced in Madrid.

FURTHER DETAILS OF THE FIGHTING.

MADRID, June 23.—4:30 p. m.—Cable dispatches received here from Admiral Cervera say the crews of the Spanish warships at Santiago have joined the land forces in order to take part in the defense of the city.

He adds that the situation is critical, but a later dispatch adds that the Spaniards "have victoriously repulsed the enemy."

A dispatch from the governor of Santiago de Cuba says:

"The attack on Sabonay and Baiquiri continued until nightfall. The enemy was repulsed except on the left, at Baiquiri, where the Spaniards were obliged to retire in consequence of a flanking movement upon the part of the enemy, who landed several kilometres east of Baiquiri. The Spanish forces retired in good order into the mountains. Sabonay and Barraco were destroyed by the American shells."

NO INFORMATION IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The bulletin from Madrid announcing fighting near Santiago was shown by an Associated Press reporter to Secretary Alger and General Miles who were in conference at 1 o'clock.

They expressed much satisfaction over it but had no additional information. General Miles remarked that he had expected fighting today and that the news showed the carrying out of what he anticipated would be today's developments.

GENERAL MILES HINTS OF A FIGHT.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—General Miles received an interesting dispatch today from one of his aide-de-camps, who is now with General Shafter's army at Baiquiri. He declined to give its text to the public, but said that it merely announced that the landing of the troops was made all right, without any casualty whatever and that the only men met were the Cuban insurgents on the ground.

It is stated that one Cuban was struck by the bursting shell and lost his arm and that there were about 5,000 insurgents on hand well armed and under good discipline.

General Miles' correspondence also stated that the troops were in splendid spirits and ready for a fight, "and," said General Miles, "there may be a fight today."

GARCIA CARRIED OUT HIS PLANS.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Authentic information received by the Associated Press in a delayed dispatch dated at Santiago, on Monday the 20th, and received here today, speaks of Shafter's command arriving there Monday, but said it had not yet landed. Garcia and his men were then in camp about eighteen miles west of the city. He had 1,200 men immediately with him, 500 more east of the city and about 1,000 north of the city.

They fought well at Guantanamo. The Cubans are enthusiastic over the arrival of the troops.

There will be 10,000 of them to put at the disposal of the United States forces after the city of Santiago has been stormed and the flag of the United States floats over its walls.

About a fortnight ago Garcia took an effective ship to avert the possibility of further Spanish troops being massed at Santiago with those already posted in that town for its defence. A strong force of his men was sent out with instructions to their commander to prevent any aid being sent by the Spanish military commanders at Holguin, where there is an important Spanish garrison, to the Spanish garrison at Santiago.

At that time the Spanish forces between Sagtiago and Guantanamo was probably about 12,000 regulars and 3,000 militia men.

NEWS OF THE COURTS.

Three More Directors Sable Filed—McCulloch Road Established—Items of Interest.

As is usual in June, the supposed month of brides, there are a larger number of divorce suits filed than can possibly be for the public good. In the superior court, through his attorney, E. V. Emrick, William Lohmeyer has filed an application for divorce from Bertha Lohmeyer. The complaint was not on file.

Fred Meyers renews his application for divorce from Caroline Meyers. P. B. Colerick is plaintiff's attorney and has the complaint in his possession. Only a couple of weeks ago Judge Roby refused to give either party a divorce and it is surmised that Meyers has secured further evidence which he proposes to produce in court.

Elizabeth Zapp also makes application for a legal separation from Frederick Zapp.

THE M'CULLOCH ROAD.

The county commissioners today established the McCulloch road in Wayne township. The viewers reported favorably on the road several weeks ago.

NOTES.

C. H. Bodle, a prisoner from the Michigan City prison, was ordered released by United States Commissioner Logan yesterday. Bodle had served his time, but was unable to pay the fine assessed against him and so according to law by serving thirty days extra and then proving his inability to pay, he is entitled to his freedom. Commissioner Logan ordered his release.

L. J. Nimis has filed suit for injunction in the superior court against the Wabash railroad company. The suit is the result of the construction of a new drainage ditch in Lafayette township. This new ditch is calculated to change the channel of an old ditch and to do this successfully part of the old ditch must be used. This old ditch the Wabash company is filling up, and it is to stop this filling process that the injunction is prayed for. The argument will be heard July 8th.

SHAFTER has landed and it is hoped he will soon land Santiago.

The democratic state ticket is strong, clean and popular. It has the essential qualities of a winner. And it will win.

MARK TWAIN found some words for the whole United States to repeat when he wrote: "I should like to do homage to our soldiers and sailors of today, who are on listed for another most righteous war, and utter the hope that they may make short and decisive work of it and leave Cuba free and fed when they start for home."

OUT OF 158 women committed to an insane asylum in St. Louis last year, 101 were classified as having been domestic servants. There must be something more than coincidence in the fact that 64 per cent. of the women lunatics in a town come from one class. And the statement does not, apparently, throw any light whatever on the domestic problem.

THE nomination of Hon. Hugh Dougherty for treasurer of state by the democratic convention Wednesday, was a deserved tribute to the worth of that gentleman and the distinguished service he has rendered the democratic party. Mr Dougherty will prove one of the most popular and one of the strongest nominees the party has made in recent years. He is a clean, honorable and cultured gentleman, who both strengthens and ornaments the ticket. Mr. Dougherty is a banker in Bluffton, and as a banker two years ago he was an advocate of the financial plank of the Chicago platform. That his advocacy of free silver had a powerful influence in Indiana, there is no denying. Throughout the state, and particularly in the northern part, Mr. Dougherty's hosts of friends will feel honored in his nomination and proud to give him their most ardent support.

"PRACTICE makes perfect," is one of those copy books precepts that are dinned into the ear and eye of the schoolboy until he is afraid that they are true. The proverb never had better illustration than that which flames from the mouths of the guns of the investing fleet at Santiago. The wildness of the Spanish marksmanship from the steady basis of the land is phenomenal. The accuracy of the gunners on the rolling ships is amazing. Our marksmen handle the big guns with the precision of small arms. The biggest part of the secret is in the word "practice." When the Spanish artillerist was lounging and smoking his cigarettes the American seaman made his gun do the smoking. The sub-calibre practice of the naval stations is vindicating itself. When Commodore Dewey was at Hong Kong the shipmen of other nationalities laughed at the American sailors because Dewey's guns kept up the incessant boom of practice work. But there was no laughing in Manila bay as the same guns tore open ship sides and fortress walls and powder magazines. The gunners had learned to hit the target. This war will have its lessons for youth in its spirits and results, but also in its methods. And the old proverb "Practice makes perfect" will be written in large, round letters on Manila paper, and not in Spanish characters on the wrappers of cigarettes.

The Deadly Dynamite Gun.

The foreign experts who feared that the present war would teach them nothing new are beginning to acknowledge that these fears were groundless. Many new naval lessons have been learned and not the least of them was taught by the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius at Santiago this week. This vessel has fired just six shots at the Spanish fortifications, but those six have been sufficient to demonstrate that the pneumatic gun, concerning which there has been so much discussion and so much adverse criticism, is a success. The three guns mounted by the Vesuvius are called dynamite guns. One name will answer as well as another, but as a matter of fact the shells which are hurled by this destructive engine of war are loaded with gunocton and not with dynamite. If the more powerful explosives were substituted the deadly effectiveness of the gun would be greatly increased and the Vesuvius alone could destroy both fortifications and cities, wiping them off the face of the earth with a few shots.

Some of the naval authorities who were most reluctant to admit the efficiency of the Vesuvius and her pneumatic guns are now the first to declare that her success at Santiago means that naval warfare will be revolutionized. If this proves to be the case it will be a step nearer that universal peace which will come when ordnance is improved to the point that war will be too terrible for nations to engage in. European governments have experimented with pneumatic guns, but it remained for Yankee ingenuity to bring them to a high degree of perfection. The Monitor, an American creation, taught the world one lesson and made all the navies of the world obsolete; the Vesuvius, also a product of American brains, may teach an equally important lesson and bring about an equally sweeping revolution.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Kreesler, of this city, and William H. Rupp, of Woodburn, Ind., occurred at noon yesterday in Trinity English Lutheran church. The Rev. Samuel Wagenhals officiated. Miss Louisa Trautman attended the bride. After the ceremony a reception was tendered at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rupp, on Spy Run avenue. Besides relatives living in the city, the following relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present from abroad: Mrs. Phoebe Shook, Napoleon, Ohio; Mrs. Calla Baker, Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Lizzie Arnold, Monroeville, Ind. After the reception the guests dispersed, but were at the Wabash depot early this morning to witness the departure of the bridal party. Rice was showered on the bride and groom and a nicely wrapped box, supposed to contain an old pair of shoes, was handed to the bride as she was about to board the train. Mr. and Mrs. Rupp received a large number of presents. They will reside at Woodburn, Ind., where Mr. Rupp is engaged in business.

THE TROOPS LANDED.

The sun-bronzed soldiers, in their slouch hats and service uniforms, quickly searched the buildings and beat up the thickets after landing in search of lurking foes, and marched into the unknown country beyond at eight-fifteen, with long, swinging stride and the short bearing of the old frontier army men, ready to fight the Spaniards Sioux fashion or in the open, wherever they could be found.

The cheers of their comrades still waiting on the transports, and of the blue jackets and the strains of "Yankee Doodle" from the bands on the transports saluted them as they disappeared from view over the hills of Baiquiri.

NO LIVES LOST.

The landing was accomplished without loss of life, the only casualty being the wounding of an insurgent on the hills by a shell from one of our warships. He will lose his arm.

The insurgent troops at Baiquiri are commanded by General Castillo and are estimated to number 1,000 men.

WOMEN TAKE PART.

Serious Riot Results From Strike in Oshkosh.

Women Armed With Clubs and Red Pegs Assault Non-Union Men—Situation Is Serious.

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 23.—A serious riot occurred here today as a result of the wood workers' strike. Several hundred women, armed with clubs, rocks, eggs and paper sacks of pepper, gathered at the south end of Light street bridge, near the Morgan Sash, Door and Blind factory, and waited for workmen endeavoring to enter the factory. The police were powerless to disperse the mob and not a man was allowed to enter the factory, even the proprietors being driven back by threats of violence. Non-union laborers were singled out and chased for blocks, a number of them being struck by stones and eggs.

As a consequence the plant was ordered closed down and the manufacturers are now holding a conference with the city officials.

Serious trouble is anticipated, as the strikers are feeling ugly.

Several incendiary fires in the past few days are laid to the strikers and it is feared a resort to force may result in further attempts in this direction.

Last Monday afternoon, at the home of her parents, No. 2 Brookside street, Miss Ruby Johnson celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary. After the games the little ones were ushered into the dining room where refreshments were served. Little Ruby received many beautiful presents.

Edward Ricke, a former citizen of Fort Wayne, is now in Colorado looking after the mining interests of his uncle, Dr. Lindinger, of Chicago.

KUHN AND HIS BAT

Won the Fourth Game of the Series for the Quakers.

The "Dummy" Made Four of the Six Hits and Drove in the Winning Run With a Three-Bagger.

Kuhn played with the New Castles yesterday and is responsible for the Quakers third victory over the Hoosiers.

He fell in love with Mr. Brodie's curves and every time he came to the plate smashed the ball somewhere out of the reach of "Pop" Lytle's fielders, making four of the visitor's six hits. "Pop" himself lined out the other two. Kuhn played in left field and did not have a chance, only two balls coming to his field. Manager Lytle will probably play the released Fort Wayne favorite on first base hereafter.

Al Fisher was very much in evidence on the Fort Wayne side, in fact he and Tommy Campbell are responsible for the brace of runs scored by the Hoosiers. In the first inning Mr. Fisher was hit by one of Three-Fingered Smith's swift inshoots and he a moment stole second. Spencer and O'Meara fanned and then Tom Campbell sent Fisher across the plate with a pretty single. Hickey fouled out. The Quakers scored in this inning on Lytle's single, Fisher's error and Ziuram's slow bounder to Spencer, on which Gansell was forced at second.

Each side scored again in the fifth. Fisher walked and Spencer sacrificed him to second. O'Meara fouled out and then Tom Campbell hit a three-bagger down the right foul line, Fisher scoring again. Hickey was out from Barclay to Gansell. Kihm made a hit in the visitor's half, went to second on Nattress' base on balls and scored on Barnett's failure to get Clarence Smith's long fly to left.

No more runs were scored until the ninth. After two visitors had been retired, Ashenbach hit a slow one down toward Spencer. Babb attempted to get it, but "booted" the ball and made a doubtful error. Kihm was next to bat and after two strikes were called hit a long three-bagger between Hickey and Belden and Ashenbach scored the winning run. Score;

NOTES.

Manager Torreyson has released Pitcher Kostal.

Pitcher Hickman, released by Boston, is being hit hard by the Eastern league teams.

Tom Campbell is hitting the ball with more regularity now than any batter in the Inter-State league.

Ziuram had the first seven put outs for the Quakers. He caught a fine game and it is a mystery why Youngstown released him.

Clarence Smith is an erratic pitcher. He gave six bases on balls in yesterday's game and still struck out six of the first nine batters. His support was superb.

"Tony" Esterpreast, of Youngstown, is something of a shortstop. He had twenty-three chances in the two games Tuesday at Grand Rapids and he did not miss one of them.

President Power has again issued orders to the Inter-State umpires to put off the field every player who attempts to play rowdy ball. Power significantly remarks, "then I will do the rest."

Kihm's batting average in the games played on the Fort Wayne grounds, including yesterday, was .311. While he was a great favorite it was necessary to reduce expenses in some manner and President Meyer believed Kihm could best be spared.

Belden is daily demonstrating that he is the premier outfielder of the Inter-State league. All his put outs yesterday were hard chances and two of them were apparently safe hits. He is no good a judge of a fly ball as Bob Gilks and gets over the outfield territory much faster than Toledo's manager. When he gets back his batting eye Belden will be a crack'a-jack.

Babb mustn't forget that there are others in the game. If he hadn't interfered Spencer might have been able to throw Ashenbach out at first in the ninth. There was a doubt as to this as it was a slow hit. It wasn't Charley's fault, anyhow.

Tomorrow is ladies' day at Lakeside park and there should be a large attendance of the fair sex. Nothing is more encouraging to the ball tossers than to see the grand stand crowded with pretty faces and summer dresses.

"Cy Swaim is the most awkward pitcher I ever batted against," says Billy Hamilton. "Every time he raises his arm to pitch I imagine he wants to shake hands with me. His awkardness and his puzzling high curve ball make him a good pitcher, and he is improving on his fielding."

There is a rustling among the managers. William Barnie, late of Brooklyn, will take charge of the Springfield team and try to carry it through the season. William Joyce is talked of to succeed Stallings at Philadelphia and Stallings will go to Detroit and run Mr. Vanderbeck's team for him. Mullane will step down and out, and in Stallings Detroit will receive its fourth manager of the season.

At Huntington yesterday afternoon the Shamrocks dropped a game to Huntington. The score was 4 to 1. Huntington secured the services of Hutton, Logansport's south paw twirler, for the game. Seven hits were made by the Shamrocks, Smith getting three of them, and Moran, McDarby, Eddy and Fitzpatrick getting one each. But five hits were made off Robbins, who had good speed and all kinds of benders. Robbins has pitched some fine ball this season, but his work yesterday was exceptionally fine.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

One Day a Week but Aside For Enjoyment of Youngsters.

The new feature of weekly children's day at Robison park will be inaugurated Saturday and continue each Saturday during the season. Children under sixteen years of age can enjoy a days outing at the park for ten cents. Tickets have been placed on sale at several drug stores, a list of which can be found in another column.

The theatre is attracting a large crowd this week, the bill is an excellent one. The monologue of John D. Gilbert the comedian, is deserving of mention.

Manager Heilbroner is arranging an attractive program for July 4th, which will be published in a few days.

The regular meeting of the Theosophical society will be held this evening at Voelkerma's hall, No. 32 Calhoun street. Dr. A. P. Buchman will lecture on "Spiritual Progression." The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock. All persons interested are invited to come.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her frame for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Heinrich & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Dreier & Bro.'s drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Evening Papers the Best Medium.
(The Business Manager.)

Of daily newspapers there are two distinct classes:

1. The kind that's looked at, and
2. The kind that's read.

The first is printed about three hours before sunrise and left lying about where people are apt to see it when they wake up. And they do get a hurried glimpse of it before settling down to the day's work, but not enough to read and heed the ads in it. The other kind collects the day's news, prints it in the afternoon, and places a copy in almost every home for careful, thoughtful, evening reading. Everybody reads the evening papers, ads and all. The great buying public never really and studiously scans a morning paper, except on Sunday. "Every evening and Sunday" is the most economical and effective advertising anybody can do in a city where daily papers are published. No getting around this proposition. It is positively proven every week in the year in hundreds of American cities.

The evening daily, with few exceptions, is a newspaper with contents covering the world of news, art and science, with everything upon the same plate and everything seasoned to the appetite of the multitude.

Nathaniel Fitch About Eighty-Three Years Old.

One of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens is Nathaniel H. Fitch, of 75 Douglass avenue, who has been a resident of Allen county for over a third of a century. He is a native of Massachusetts, where when a boy he learned the shoemaker's trade and for many years followed that business. In 1855 he was partially crippled by an attack of rheumatism and was compelled to abandon the awl and last and turn his attention to other vocations. He was offered and accepted the position of express messenger on the Hopkinton and Boston road. Five years later the company gave him charge of one of its express wagons in his native city and he held that position until 1865. Then he resigned and came west, settling in Naples as the passenger and freight agent of the Pennsylvania company.

Mr. Fitch held that office eighteen years, at the same time conducting with his nephew an extensive business in the manufacture of staves. One night, during the busy season, when the yards were well stocked, the factory and its surrounding piles of staves were destroyed by fire, entailing a loss upon the owners of over $25,000, as they were not insured. The works were rebuilt, but owing to a scarcity of rough material and possibly lack of sufficient funds, the firm was not able to regain the business they enjoyed before the fire and after three or four years of indifferent success, they abandoned it entirely. Mr. Fitch then came to Fort Wayne and was given a position in the Pennsylvania freight house, where he has been employed ever since.

Mr. Fitch will be eighty-three years old in July. Notwithstanding his age he is a stout and healthy man, vigorous in mind and body. He says he belongs to a family noted for the longevity of its members. He has two brothers and a sister living back in Massachusetts, who are aged respectively ninety-three, eighty-five and seventy-eight and who are just as strong and healthy apparently as the subject of this sketch. Mr. Fitch can truthfully say what very few men of his age can, viz.: That during his life time he never tasted intoxicating liquors, took a chew of tobacco nor smoked a cigar or pipe. He has always been regular in his hours for retiring at night and getting up in the morning. It is probably to those temperate habits that his remarkable strength and health are now due.

Mr. Fitch's family consists of a wife, three sons and a daughter. One of the boys resides at Mattoon, Ill., one at Jackson, Mich., and the other in this city. The daughter lives in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mr. Fitch can talk interestingly of pioneer railroading. He has distinct recollections of the first railway ever built in America and rode on the Boston and Worchester road in 1835. That line was one of the three first roads in this country. The cars then in use were constructed after the manner of the stage coach of those days, having doors at the side and a seating capacity of eighteen or twenty. The coaches exhibited at the world's fair and alleged to be the first ones ever in use on an American railway were of a later date than the coach Mr. Fitch first beheld. He says they were introduced about the year 1835. The track of the Boston and Worchester was constructed of wooden rails, with strips of iron nailed upon them.

The absentee lists at the Pittsburg shops are unusually large today, many of the men being off duty on account of the funeral of Rev. Father Brammer.

J. C. Miller, Nickel Plate brakeman, who had been detained at home a week by the serious illness of his wife, resumed work yesterday, the patient having improved.

The Wabash ticket office at Wakarusa was robbed of $30 Sunday night. Chief Detective J. B. Sollitt is "hot upon the trail" of the burglars and they will soon be landed behind the bars. He is being assisted in the search by the Pennsylvania police department.

Switchman Westrobe, of the Pittsburg, who had some fingers injured a month ago, resumed work this morning.

The Wabash has purchased a new and larger flag, which was flung to the breeze for the first time today. It is said to be the largest flag in the city, being forty-one and a half feet long.

W. J. Holt has entered the employ of S. F. Bowser & Co. and this morning started upon his first trip "on the road." He will travel through Wisconsin and southern Minnesota.

News has been received of the death of Edward M. McDade in the Klondike region. He was for some years superintendent of bridges on the Lake Shore, and left for the Klondike in 1897.

The stone work of the new Nickel Plate bridge at the crossing of the Pittsburg road will be completed and ready to receive the iron structures next week. H. W. Tapp is the contractor.

Auditor R. R. Mahoney, Supt. J. W. Hunter and Resident Engineer C. E. Barnes, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, went to Pittsburg last night to attend a meeting of Pennsylvania officials.

Charles W. Henderson, who came here several weeks ago to attend the funeral of his father, left for his home in Portland, Ore., today. For several years Charlie was a clerk in Supt. C. D. Law's office.

The active pall bearers at the funeral of the late Mrs. C. D. Law were chosen from the ranks of Pennsylvania officials and were C. E. Walton, F. E. Sawyer, E. G. Ericson, W. H. Tigar, Robert Learmouth and A. H. Pollmanus.

S. F. Bowser & Co. are quietly preparing to raise a flag in the near future. They are not saying much about it now, but THE SENTINEL learns from a reliable source that it will eclipse any of the flags so far unfurled in the city. The Bowsers never do anything by halves.

On the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy trains 48 and 49 are hauled from St. Louis to Rock Island without change of engines until the round trip is made, 520 miles. On June 4 one of the company's class A passenger engines made three consecutive round trips, 1,560 miles.

The trunk lines have received the rules for storage of freights at New York. The free term for flour under these rules was twenty days, but under the revision only four days is allowed, and western millers were a good deal disturbed over the matter.

The Baptist excursion party to Rome City numbered eighty. Three or four years ago a similar affair by this Sunday school drew several hundred people. Since Robison park opened up Rome City and Eagle Lake have no attractions for our people other than the advantages they possess in a piscatorial way.

A. B. Tousley, the well known Pittsburg brakeman, is spending his spare moments in breaking the colt Dr. Marrow colt owned by Fred Meyers, the Wallace street blacksmith. Harness was put upon the animal yesterday for the first time and this morning Mr. Tousley drove him around as though he was an old horse.

Employes in the operating department of the Lake Shore road will present their late general manager, W. H. Canff, an appropriate gift. When he was on the Lake Shore road this could not be done, as it was against the rules of the company for employes to give officers presents, but as president of the Nickel Plate Mr. Canff can use his pleasure in the matter.

Indianapolis Journal: "The Nickel Plate has resumed discharging employes who visit saloons. Railroad employes must now do one of two things—steer clear of saloons or lose their jobs." This item does not correctly state the situation in Fort Wayne, inasmuch as there have been no recent dismissals here. There are no men employed of the Nickel Plate at this point who are addicted to intoxicating drinks.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 23.—It was after 9 o'clock last night before the work of the democratic state convention was completed by the nomination of a ticket.

After Samuel M. Ralston had been nominated by acclamation for secretary of state the contest began with balloting for a candidate for state auditor.

With the presentation of the names of five candidates for auditor of state it became apparent that the large counties of Marion, Vanderburg and Vigo had entered into a combination to nominate Fanning for auditor, Stockbath for treasurer and McNutt for attorney general, and the friends of other candidates took alarm and started out to beat the combination. When the fifth ballot was ordered the friends of the candidates for other positions combined on John W. Minor and he was nominated by a vote of 867 to 721 for Fanning.

Marion and Vigo counties tried to carry out their agreement with Vanderburg when candidates for treasurer were placed in nomination and voted for Stockbath, but Minor's friend's rolled to the support of Hugh Dougherty, of Wells, and he was nominated on the second ballot. W. H. O'Neil withdrew from the race for attorney general before the ballot was ordered, and John G. McNutt, of Vigo, was nominated by acclamation.

The third defeat of the combination of the big counties came when the ballot was taken for clerk of the supreme court. Joseph L. Reilly, of Jennings, was the combination candidate, but was defeated by Henry Warring, of Marion, who as the only representative of the German element on the ticket and who owes his nomination in part to that fact.

W. S. Sinclair, of Starke county, was nominated for superintendent of public instruction on the second ballot over James W. Nourse, of Spencer.

Out of a field of five candidates the convention nominated James S. Huther, of Brown county, for the office of state statistician, and Edward Barrett, of Hendricks, was selected as the party candidate for state geologist over two competitors.

For supreme court judge Judge Hackney and Hugh McMullen were put in nomination from the second judicial district, and the roll call when footed up showed that Hackney had received 1,269 votes to 2:7 for McMullen.

Judge James McCabe, of Warren county, and Judge Timothy E. Howard, of St. Joseph, were nominated by acclamation for the third and fifth districts respectively.

For judges of the appellate court Edwin Taylor, of Vanburg; C. J. Kollmeyer, of Bartholomew; Edgar A. Brown, of Marion; W. S. Divine, of Madison, and John Kapelin, of Lake, were nominated.

The convention then adjourned.

A Cure for Heartburn.

The burning sensation in the stomach, the pains and suffering which I experienced for five long years, brought on by continued constipation and biliousness, are almost indescribable. I tried every known remedy without effect. Finally I tried Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets, following the directions carefully. After taking a few doses I began to improve. I have not used more than three boxes and feel as well as I ever felt. My restoration to perfect health I attribute solely to the use of Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets, and I only wish I could persuade others to do as I did and be cured—Logan M. Inspector Leatherman Makes Some Sensational Affidavits.

Inspector Leatherman created a sensation this afternoon by swearing out affidavits against A. L. Meeks, Robt. B. Davis and George W. Lahr, proprietors of the Lincoln Tea company, charging them with wrongfully using the mails. The affidavits allege that the company has been sending out pictures and pamphlets of an indecent character.

Deputy United States Marshal Rose arrested the young men this afternoon and they were taken before United States Commissioner Logan. Samuel Morris was employed to defend them. A nominal bond will be fixed and the gentlemen will then be released until arrangements can be made for a hearing in the near future. The young men are all well known and their friends will be slow to believe that they have been guilty of any violation of the law.

GORMAN UNDER ARREST.

Inspector Leatherman also swore to an affidavit yesterday charging Daniel Gorman with violating the United States postal laws in using the mails to secure property by false representations. It is claimed that he was in the fake produce business under the name of the Indiana Produce company and would secure credit to buy fish by giving the Indiana Produce Co. as reference. It is claimed he secured considerable produce in this manner. Gorman was taken before United States Commissioner Logan this morning and bail was fixed at $200, which he was unable to furnish.

Cornell Victor in the Triangular Boat Race.

Yale Was Second and Harvard Tailed the Procession—Cornell's Victory Was Decisive.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 23.—Cornell won the tri-university boat race on the Thames river course today.

Yale crossed the finish line three and one-half boat lengths behind the winners and twelve lengths ahead of Harvard.

Last year, at Poughkeepsie, Cornell won in 20:31; Yale, second, 20:44, and Harvard, third, 21 minutes.

MORE RECRUITS.

Another Chance for Young Men to Join the Army—Undesirables Wanted.

W. J. Vessy today received a telegram from A. M. Dickson, of Indianapolis, requesting him to secure twenty or twenty-five artisans, unions, carpenters and blacksmiths for enlistment in the engineer corps, which is now being organized in Indiana by Captain Dickson. The pay is from $15.60 to $40 a month and the recruits may be secured immediately.

Mr. Vessy appointed A. J. Yon to secure the men and Mr. Yon has secured quarters in the city clerk's office where artesans desiring to join the engineering corps can come and be examined. The telegram asks that these men be sent immediately and there will be no delay.

Adjutant H. K. Scott writes that he will not open a recruiting office in Fort Wayne until he has secured his quota of men from Auburn and Angola. This means that he will not be here until some time next week. The recruiting office will be in the Drs. Barnett's office on West Wayne street and Dr. Schrader will be the examining physician.

"Old Glory" in Bloomingdale.

A pretty and patriotic scene was witnessed at the Trinity Lutheran school yesterday evening at 6:30, the occasion being the raising of a beautiful flag on the school building. A large number of people had assembled on the school grounds and in the streets to join in the cheers for the star spangled banner. The following program was carried out in a highly creditable manner:

"Flag drill," by the pupils of the school; raising the flag, by August Fabising and Hy. Brinkroger; song, "Columbia," by the school; recitation, "Salute Old Glory," by Otto Lenz; address, by Rev. J. Bohn; recitation, "Fing of the Heroes," by Hulda Keller; song, "America," by the entire school.

Both teachers and pupils are entitled to much credit in arranging and carrying out the program. They maintain that a good Lutheran is always a good patriot.

A ROYAL WELCOME

Given the New Recruits by the Boys at Chickamauga.

HEADQUARTERS TWENTY-EIGHTH LIGHT BATTERY, IND. VOL.
CHICKAMAUGA PARK, GA.
Monday, June 13, '98.

To The Sentinel:

The last couple of days have been very pleasant ones for the Twenty-eight Indiana battery boys on account of the arrival of a number of new men from home, some of whom are close friends and companions of some of the boys who came down here with the battery on the first call. Saturday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock the first squad of new men, who left Fort Wayne on Friday at 12:35, came into camp in charge of First. C. Liggat. Their arrival at our quarters was the cause of a great excitement. They had been expected for several days and as soon as they marched into sight all men off duty rushed up and greeted them royally. They were lined up in front of the officers' tents and reported and were then dismissed into the care of the boys, and to say they were well taken care of would be putting it rather mildly. It is certain they will never forget their first day in camp.

This first squad had no difficulty in finding our camp as they were accompanied by Corporal Geo. Degner, who went home with Captain Ranke to attend to some private business, but the second squad was not so fortunate.

The squad of recruits, who left Fort Wayne Saturday morning at 7:10 arrived at Lytle Station, two miles from our camp, at 10:30 yesterday morning, but as they were not expected until today no one was at the depot to meet them and so they had to start out for themselves and find our camp. After strolling all over Chickamauga Park they came into our quarters at about 1:30 and, of course, were also given a hearty welcome.

Today the new men were "broken in." First Sergeant Fred Meyer had been saving some special work for them, and if the friends at home could have stepped into camp they would have seen some men digging ditches, shoveling dirt, raking up rubbish, riding mules to water, etc., who were not exactly cut out for that kind of work.

About 11 o'clock this morning Lieut. Frank Alderman received a telegram from Captain Ranke, ordering him to hold an election for a junior second lieutenant—a new office made necessary in a six-gun battery. The assembly call was sounded at once and in a few minutes the entire company was in line, for what they did not know, but Lieutenant Alderman announced his orders and, while the boys were somewhat taken by surprise, they were fully equal to the occasion. Immediately the nominations brought out First Sergeant Fred J. Meyer, Sergeant Clyde Snowberger and Corporal C. C. Mungen as candidates. Sergeant Snowberger declined to be a candidate and the nominations closed with Sergeant Meyer and Corporal Mungen as the only candidates. The result of the first ballot showed Meyer elected. Lieutenant Alderman then appointed Sergeant Snowberger to succeed Meyer. It is now Junior Second Lieutenant Fred J. Meyer and First Sergt. Clyde Snowberger. After the announcement of the result of the election and the new appointment the boys circled around the promoted officers and picking them up, carried them on their shoulders around the camp amid rousing cheers. Both men are popular with the boys and are well deserving of the advance. Sergeant Snowberger assumed his new duties today, but Lieutenant Meyers will cast a few days until his commission arrives. The promotion of Sergeant Snowberger and the returning home of Sergeant Fred Jones will cause two vacancies among the sergeants and boys are now wondering who the fortunate ones will be to receive the appointments.

Yesterday afternoon there was an open air meeting of the Odd Fellows in camp. Several prominent speakers from different states were present and delivered short and interesting addresses. The Fort Wayne Battery was represented by Corporal John Vordermark and Private Paul Banman. A committee of one man from each regiment in camp was appointed to canvass his regiment and learn how many I. O. O. F. men they had. Another meeting is announced for next Sunday afternoon at which the subject of organizing a general army lodge will be taken up.

The Athuis, Co., battery came into camp last Saturday, fully equipped with men and horses, but no guns yet. This makes ten batteries of artillery now in camp here, but none of them are yet fully equipped with guns and ready for the field. For this reason it is not expected that any orders to move the artillery will be received soon.

NOTES.

Corporal Andy Carlston received a box of smoked meats last Saturday from Fred Helling, jr., and at the same time Private Billy Brown and received a large box of good things to eat from home. Both the men were so delighted that they locked themselves up in their tent and were lost to the world for a couple of hours.

The second section, better known among the boys here as the Irish section, under command of Sergeant John Caston, is now comfortably located in a new home. This section lost their tent a week ago by fire, caused, the boys say, by Corporal "Red" Mungen going into the tent with his hat off.

Jack VanRay has been assigned to a place in the United States signal corps and will assume his new duties tomorrow. This will take him away from the battery, and, while the boys hate to have him leave, they are glad of the advance he has made.

While THE SENTINEL representative was passing the gang in the ditch this afternoon Dr. Evans, who was manipulating a pick, stopped work long enough to say that if he was to be counted on in the third contest he "Fighting Bob" Evans he thought he ought to be assigned to "something light." At this juncture Charley Eckart, who when at home is a disciple of Blackstone, came up out of the ditch and turning on his shovel said: "Tell Jim Robinson, Sam Morris and Henry Cederick that I delivered their best regards to the boys, as requested, and they were thankfully received, and please send my respects to the Allen County Bar association."

Joe O'Connell, one of the ditch detail, says he thought he was joining the army when he left home. But that his first day's work suggests working on a railroad section.

George Shaefer says that if he never gets any nearer Cuba than he is now he will feel as if he is well repaid for his trouble, for he has seen something he could not see in Fort Wayne.

Sunday noon private Frank Kinsey and Bol Bowser, who are on the cooking detail, tried to fill a large pan of hot water off the stove and accidently spilled the water into the fire, putting it all out. Kinsey was soon hopping around on one foot asking Bowser what was the matter, and after taking an inventory it was found that neither one was hurt but only badly scared.

Hon. Joshua Lovering, of Baltimore, addressed a large crowd of soldiers at the Wisconsin Y. M. C. A. tent last evening and a large number of our men were in attendance.

TWO YOUNG THIEVES

Enter a John Street Saloon and Steal Cigars, Whisky and Tobacco.

This morning Edward Nowak, who conducts a saloon at No. 263 John street, reported to Officer Spillner that during the night some one had entered his place and stole three boxes of cigars, some quart bottles of whisky and some tobacco. The officer remembered that last night he and Officer Collins met Frank Brzoswski and Herman R. Kuhl returning from a dance and they acted rather peculiarly. The officer went to the boys' homes and questioned them and finally they admitted having stolen the stuff most of which was found hidden away in young Kuhl's home on Green street. The lads are about eighteen years old and had secured a key which fit the lock in the saloon door making entrance to the place rather easy. They are locked up pending a hearing and the stolen goods is on exhibition at the police station.

A vivacious woman's fun can frequently speak in more choice and language than any known to the tongue of man. Invite or repel, sigh or smile, be meek or haughty, tear a passion to tatters or utter love lady sent for gives it.

It can also tell the story of health. A woman who suffers from weakness and disease is a woman in sorrow and dejection while she remains a sufferer. She may be naturally beautiful, naturally attractive, naturally interesting and animated with vitality, but the absence of health is starving at the very vitals of her womanly nature, and she soon becomes a withered flower in comparison with her fairer sister and more healthy sex. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wonderful medicine for women who suffer in this way. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood. It tones and builds up the shattered nerves. It restores the glow of health to the pallid cheek. It gives springiness and trip to the carriage. It makes the eyes sparkle with returning vivacity. It imparts animation to the voice and gestures. The fun that long lay lifeless and idle in the lap of an invalid again speaks the eloquent language of health and happy womanhood. Thousands of women have testified to the marvelous merits of this wonderful medicine.

"For several years I suffered with prolapsus of the uterus," writes Miss A. Lee Schantz, of Penn Yan, Yates Co., New York. "Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription was the first medicine that helped me. I had been doctoring for all kinds of trouble, and everything else but the Favorite Prescription failed to help me. I was completely run down, had a bad cough, and was much troubled with nervous prostration. I could not sleep nights, and was unable to do my housework. I had been under the doctor's care for a long time, but got no relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well, when I was induced to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I had not taken it long before I felt that it was helping me. I continued its use for about six months, and was entirely cured. I have had no return of the trouble since, and can highly recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' to all suffering women."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS

The Epworth league convention has adjourned, the closing feature of the three days session being the lecture last night by Rev. Frank Crane, of Chicago, who talked on "What Will You Do With It?" The auditorium of the Wayne street church was crowded to its fullest capacity by delegates and citizens who desired to hear the eloquent divine. Dr. Crane is editor in the department of pulpit comment in the Chicago Record and is thoroughly conversant with the subject he discussed, the theme of his lecture being the possibilities of youth. He asked "What would you do with a million dollars, or in other words, with unlimited wealth?" He told what many people had done with that much money and showed the numerous mistakes made in the using of it.

"What would you do with unlimited physical strength? That is the dream of the boys. They wish to be big and strong and the old Greek champions are their heroes.

"What would you do if you had unlimited knowledge, which is another form of power? Or if you had unlimited beauty?

"The possession of youth is better than all of these, so far as our real happiness is concerned. And this is the importance of youth. Youth is the time of life when we settle the most important questions of life; not the questions of state, perhaps, but the questions of our hearts, our homes and our religion. It is then that the problem of marriage comes up and is often, nearly always, settled.

"Youth is the time of life, when lifeguets its fullness, its characteristics. It is the period of romance. That is when the peach blow comes into the life if at all."

In answer to the question "What will you do?" the Rev. Crane said: "Don't be a baby. Be a man. The art of youth consists in leaving off the babyish and in putting on the manliness."

AFTERNOON'S PROCEEDINGS.

The prize banner to the junior league making the best showing in the work of the society was warded to the Bluffton league, although the Blufftonites were very close pressed by the Angola chapter. Rev. T. M. Guild conducted a farewell consecration service.

Mrs. John Clayton, Mrs. Arthur Mayne, Miss Lucy Purviance, Miss Lizzie Ferguson and Miss Laura Kinsley, of Huntington, were Fort Wayne visitors yesterday.

Huntington Herald: "Mrs. W. F. Dinius, of Fort Wayne, was a visitor in the city Tuesday and today. Mrs. Dinius is most excellent chief of the Rathbone Sisters' lodge in this city and comes to preside over the meetings until her term of office expires, which is soon."

SMITH-TYLER.

Miss Hidden Tyler Became the Bride of Parsifor F. Smith—They Will Reside in Crestline, Ohio.

Just as the bells were ringing the 6 o'clock hour last evening Miss Hidden Winnette Tyler became the happy bride of Parsifor F. Smith, now. Samuel Wagenhals performed the ceremony in the Trinity Lutheran church before a number of the fashionable people of the city. The ceremony was a most impressive one, the ring service being used. The church was simply but beautifully decorated. The chancel rail was trimmed with bands of arbor vitae and marguerites. Palms and ferns were plentiful enough in the back ground to fill the vacant spaces in the chancel and about the pulpit. Large clusters of the catalpa blossoms and vases of other white flowers brightened the scene. The ushers were Messrs. Will Wood, of Toledo; Clifford S. Sims, of Allegheny, and Fred Hoffman, H. C. Rockhill, E. H. Olds, and F. J. Woodworth, of this city, and the bridesmaids were Misses Katherine Hoffman, Elizabeth Knight, Emma Rarsole and Mary Smith, of Crestline. The bride entered the church with her father, Clark Blanton and met the groom and his best man, Louis Hess, of New Castle, Pa., at the altar, where the marriage service was read by Rev. Wagenhals.

She was graceful and handsome in a costume of white satin, made entrain. She wore a veil of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mr. Will Stanton, of Detroit, acted as master of ceremonies.

The members of the bridal party and immediate relatives then went directly to "The Cedars," the home of the bride, the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. John Orff. Congratulations were followed by a delicious supper.

The guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stanton, of Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Mrs. Anna H. Smith and Miss Mary Smith, of Crestline, Ohio, mother and sister of the groom; Mrs. Frank McKinnio, of Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Will Stanton, of Detroit; Miss Alice Nelson, of Logansport, and Miss Laura Grange, of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the limited for the east and will reside in Crestline, where the groom is the master mechanic of the Pennsylvania shops.

A SECOND DISH.

Proved Too Much for Actual Need and Showed the Value of Condensed Food.

"When the new food was first placed in my store I took a package home to try. The name, 'Grape-Nuts,' had attracted my attention and the statement that it was partly composed of grape-sugar excited my interest, as we all know that grape sugar, made by certain methods of treating the cereals, is one of the most nourishing and digestible articles that can be eaten.

"I rather expected to like the food, but was not expecting that the children would take so kindly to it. Each one of the little folks, however, passed up the saucer for a second supply and so did I.

"It is a delicious morsel and very grateful to the palate. I found, about midway in my second dish, that I had sufficient for a meal and realized for the first time that I was eating a condensed food that supplies ones wants with a few spoonsful and does not require anything like the volume to furnish the amount of food required as when any of the ordinary forms of cereals are served. Grape Nuts are an elegant food and the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., are to be congratulated upon the discovery," said M. C. Goossen, the well known fancy grocer of Grand Rapids.
